Lesson Plan

Class: First Secondary Unit 1 Session: 1 of 3 — Vocabulary Title: Big Changes — Listen and Discuss (SB pp. 6–7)
Day/Date: Week 2, Sun 17/3/1448 (Aug 30, 2026) Prior Knowledge: Students can talk about their lives using simple present and past tenses at a basic level.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Activate prior knowledge; predict the meaning of the unit theme “Big Changes” from the unit photos.	Warm-up: write overpopulation, endangered species, space exploration on the board; Ss discuss in pairs what they know and which issues are positive/negative. Direct Ss to the photos on SB p.6, read the title “Big Changes” aloud, and have Ss scan the pictures/captions to guess the theme.	8 min	Whole-class brainstorming, pair discussion, prediction	SB p.6, Board	Oral questioning	Link students to the unit theme before reading
Identify the most important event and its effect in each of the four Listen and Discuss texts (Unification of Saudi Arabia, the UAE, the Space Race, the Communications Revolution).	Play the audio for the four texts on SB p.6, first for listening only, then again as Ss follow along, pausing after each; ask comprehension questions (e.g. “What happened in 1902?”, “When was the UAE established?”, “What was Telstar?”); in pairs, Ss identify the most important event in each text and write its effect; check as a class.	15 min	Listen-and-follow, guided Q&A, pair work	SB p.6, class audio	Oral Q&A, pair-work check	Students explain in their own words why one event was a “big change”
Use unit vocabulary (affect, launch, take for granted, establish, host) in context; complete the Global Issues task and Quick Check A/B (SB p.7).	Global Issues: Ss look at the list of issues, listen to the audio, individually mark the issues they think affect us most, and write a fact + an effect for each; report to class using a 3-column board chart (Issue / Fact / Effect). Quick Check A: match vocabulary to meanings using context from p.6. Quick Check B: true/false comprehension, correcting false statements.	17 min	Individual work, whole-class reporting, guided vocabulary-in-context	SB p.7, audio, Board	Quick Check A & B checked as a class	Students choose one global issue and suggest one realistic solution
Turn facts into questions (Pair Work, p.7) and consolidate the session.	Pair Work: Ss find factual sentences in the p.6 texts and turn them into questions (model: “When was the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia established?”), then ask/answer in pairs; quick class review of new vocabulary; assign Workbook p.219 for vocabulary practice.	5 min	Pair work, whole-class wrap-up	SB p.7, Workbook p.219	Teacher monitoring of pair-work questions	Homework: Workbook p.219 vocabulary practice

Class: First Secondary Unit 1 Session: 2 of 3 — Grammar in Context Title: Big Changes — Grammar (SB pp. 8–9)
Day/Date: Week 2, Mon 18/3/1448 (Aug 31, 2026) Prior Knowledge: Students know this unit's core vocabulary from the previous session.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Review when to use the simple present (facts, routines) and the present progressive (now, temporary situations).	Remind students when each tense is used; elicit examples from Ss for each and write them on the board, underlining the verbs; demonstrate with action ("I close the door every day" vs. "I am closing the door now").	8 min	Teacher-led review, elicitation, demonstration	SB p.8, Board	Oral examples from students	Students link tense choice to real routines vs. current actions
Complete Exercise A (simple present / present progressive gap-fill, 10 items) and Exercise B ("Hi Martin" email gap-fill, 20 items, mixed tenses including simple past and present perfect).	Ss complete Ex A individually (p.8), check in pairs, then as a class; review simple past vs. present perfect with board examples ("They lived in L.A. for three years" vs. "They have lived in L.A. for three years"); Ss complete the email gap-fill (Ex B, p.9) individually, then check by reading aloud in pairs.	20 min	Individual practice, pair-check, teacher-guided review	SB pp. 8–9, Board	Ex A & B checked as a class	Students identify one more example of each tense from their own week
Practice present-perfect/simple-past question forms orally (Exercise C, p.9).	In pairs, Ss make up questions and answers about Fernando's life in Britain (model: "Have you been to Bath?" / "Yes, I have." / "When were you there?"); teacher circulates, monitors, and notes common errors for whole-class correction.	12 min	Pair interviews, teacher monitoring	SB p.9	Teacher observation + error correction	Students ask a partner one real question using the present perfect
Consolidate today's grammar points and set homework.	Quick oral drill mixing all four tenses covered today; assign Workbook pp. 220–222 for further grammar practice.	5 min	Whole-class drill	Workbook pp. 220–222	Homework assigned	Workbook practice consolidates tense choice independently

Class: First Secondary Unit 1 Session: 3 of 3 — Reading Title: Big Changes — Reading: “Progress Towards the Future” (SB pp. 12–13)
Day/Date: Week 2, Tue 19/3/1448 (Sep 1, 2026) Prior Knowledge: Students know this unit's core vocabulary and grammar from the previous two sessions.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Activate background knowledge about Saudi Arabia's progress since 1932; apply the Predicting reading strategy.	Before Reading: Ss individually consider “What are the most significant advances or changes?” and “How do you think these will develop in the future?”, noting ideas in any format (chart/list/mind-map). Reading Strategy — Predicting: discuss what readers do before starting an unfamiliar text (look at pictures/title first).	8 min	Individual reflection, whole-class strategy discussion	SB p.12, Board	Notes checked informally	Students apply the predicting strategy to any new text they read
Read “Progress Towards the Future” for gist and detail; identify the 3 pillars and 3 themes of the vision described.	Play the audio as Ss read along and underline unknown words; reread paragraph by paragraph, pausing to check understanding with guided questions (“What are the three pillars of the vision?”, “What themes is the vision built around?”); pair-share unknown vocabulary and guess meaning from context.	18 min	Listen-and-read, guided reading, pair vocabulary work	SB pp. 12–13, audio	Oral comprehension check	Students relate one pillar or theme to something they see in their own community
Complete After Reading tasks A (vocabulary in context: transforming, hub, vibrant, thriving, ambitious, enterprises, diversify, transparent), B, and C (list 5 planned developments) and discuss opinions.	Ex A individually, check as a class with context clues discussed; Ex B — compare pre-reading notes with the text in pairs; Ex C — list 5 developments and discuss which is most important, with reasons, in pairs; Discussion questions on whether change is always good.	14 min	Individual work, pair comparison, class discussion	SB p.13	Ex A/C answers + discussion participation	Students connect the discussion to their own view on change in Saudi society
Consolidate reading and prepare for Part 2.	Class summary of the text's main idea; remind students Part 2 (Conversation & Writing) begins next week; homework: note 5 new words from the unit for the Unit 1 Self Reflection checklist (SB p.19).	5 min	Whole-class wrap-up	SB p.19	Homework assigned	Personal vocabulary log supports independent revision

Lesson Plan

Class: STEP Program Week 1 Session: 1 of 3 — Verb "Be" Title: STEP Foundations — Verb "Be" (am / is / are)
Day/Date: Week 1, Day 1 of 3 Prior Knowledge: Students can recognize basic English sentences and know the personal pronouns I/you/he/she/it/we/they.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Activate prior knowledge; introduce the verb “to be” in the present simple (am/is/are) as the foundation of English sentence structure.	Warm-up: write 3-4 simple sentences on the board with the verb “be” blanked out (e.g. “I ___ a student.”, “She ___ happy.”); elicit which word is missing and why; introduce the rule: I+am, He/She/It+is, You/We/They+are, with example sentences for each.	8 min	Whole-class elicitation, rule presentation, board work	Whiteboard	Oral questioning	Students state the verb “be” form for a given pronoun on the spot
Apply the am/is/are rule to build complete affirmative sentences, then form negatives (am not/isn't/aren't) and yes/no questions.	Guided board practice: give sentence starters (subject + blank) for all 7 pronouns and 3-4 nouns/names (e.g. Ali, my friends, the book) and have students come to the board in turns to write the correct form; drill negatives by adding “not” (I'm not, he isn't/he's not, they aren't/they're not) with contraction forms shown side-by-side with full forms; invert word order to form questions (Am I…? Is she…? Are we…?) and have pairs practice asking/answering short questions about classmates and objects in the room; correct errors immediately on the board.	15 min	Guided practice, board work, pair drilling	Whiteboard, Mini whiteboards	Teacher monitoring of pair drills; board corrections	Students form one negative and one question sentence using “be” about themselves
Apply the verb “be” accurately under timed conditions using STEP-style multiple-choice items.	Distribute the STEP topic worksheet — Verb Be (10 Qs, 4-option multiple choice, e.g. “My sisters ___ at school now.” a) am b) is c) are d) be); students work individually and silently for a set time to simulate exam pacing; circulate to note common errors (e.g. confusing plural “we/they” with is, confusing singular/plural “you”) without correcting yet; stop the time and note which items caused the most difficulty for targeted review in the next row.	17 min	Individual timed practice, exam-condition simulation	STEP topic worksheet — Verb Be (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Timed written practice scored against the answer key	Students identify, unaided, which pronoun a given verb-be form matches
Self-correct and consolidate the am/is/are rule using the worksheet's built-in answer key.	Students flip to the answers printed on the same worksheet page and self-check their 10 answers, circling any they got wrong; call out the 2-3 items most students missed and re-explain the rule briefly on the board; close with a rapid round of oral questions (one pronoun each) to confirm the rule is secure before moving to Was/Were next session.	5 min	Self-correction, whole-class rapid review	STEP topic worksheet — Verb Be (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class), Whiteboard	Self-checked worksheet scores; oral rapid-fire review	Students correctly self-score their worksheet and can restate the am/is/are rule unprompted

Class: STEP Program Week 1 Session: 2 of 3 — Was / Were Title: STEP Foundations — Was / Were Day/Date: Week 1, Day 2 of 3 Prior Knowledge: Students know the present-simple forms of the verb "be" (am/is/are) from the previous session and can identify subject pronouns.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Extend the verb "be" to the past simple (was/were), mirroring the am/is/are grouping already learned.	Warm-up: write 2-3 present-tense "be" sentences from the last session on the board (e.g. "I am a student.") and ask students to say them as if talking about yesterday, eliciting was/were; introduce the rule: I/He/She/It+was, You/We/They+were, pointing out it mirrors the am-is/are grouping from the previous session; write parallel example sentences for each pronoun (I was tired. / They were at home.).	8 min	Whole-class elicitation, rule presentation, board work	Whiteboard	Oral questioning	Students convert a present "be" sentence given orally into its past form
Apply was/were to build negatives (wasn't/weren't) and yes/no questions about the past.	Guided board practice: present 4-5 sentence starters with time markers (yesterday, last week, two hours ago) for students to complete with was/were at the board; drill negative forms (wasn't/weren't) and yes/no questions (Was he…? Were they…?) using the same items as a base; pair students to ask and answer 3 short questions about where they were yesterday at a given time, using was/were correctly.	15 min	Guided practice, board work, pair drilling	Whiteboard, Mini whiteboards	Teacher monitoring of pair drills; board corrections	Students form one negative and one question sentence using was/were about yesterday
Apply was/were accurately under timed conditions using STEP-style multiple-choice items.	Distribute the STEP topic worksheet — Was / Were (10 Qs, 4-option multiple choice, e.g. "The students ___ absent yesterday." a) was b) were c) is d) are); students work individually under timed, exam-like conditions; circulate noting recurring errors (e.g. using was with plural subjects, confusing singular "you" with was); flag the most-missed items for the closing review.	17 min	Individual timed practice, exam-condition simulation	STEP topic worksheet — Was / Were (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Timed written practice scored against the answer key	Students identify, unaided, whether a given past-tense subject needs was or were
Self-correct and consolidate the was/were rule, contrasting it with the present "be" forms.	Students self-check their 10 answers against the worksheet's printed key, circling errors; briefly re-teach the 2-3 most-missed items on the board; close with a rapid contrast drill calling out a pronoun and asking students to give both the present (is/are/am) and past (was/were) form in one breath, confirming both forms are secure before the Pronouns session.	5 min	Self-correction, whole-class rapid review	STEP topic worksheet — Was / Were (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class), Whiteboard	Self-checked worksheet scores; oral rapid contrast drill	Students correctly self-score their worksheet and give both present and past "be" forms for a pronoun on demand

Class: STEP Program Week 1 Session: 3 of 3 — Pronouns Title: STEP Foundations — Pronouns (Subject Pronouns)

Day/Date: Week 1, Day 3 of 3 Prior Knowledge: Students have practiced the verb "be" in present and past forms (am/is/are, was/were) across the previous two sessions and have been using subject pronouns informally throughout.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Identify and produce the seven subject pronouns (I/you/he/she/it/we/they) as the words that precede "be" and other verbs.	Warm-up: point to yourself, a student, a boy, a girl, an object, the whole class, and a group of students in turn, eliciting I/you/he/she/it/we/they for each; write the full subject pronoun set on the board organized by singular/plural and 1st/2nd/3rd person; highlight that these are the words that go before "be", tying back to the previous two sessions' am/is/are and was/were charts.	8 min	Whole-class elicitation, rule presentation, board work	Whiteboard	Oral questioning	Students supply the correct subject pronoun for a person/object/group pointed at
Replace noun subjects with the correct pronoun in full sentences, reinforcing the be-forms already learned.	Guided board practice: write 6-8 sentences with a noun/name subject (e.g. "Sara is happy.", "The boys are at school.", "My father was tired.") and have students come up to replace the subject with the correct pronoun (She is happy. / They are at school. / He was tired.), reinforcing the be-forms from the previous two sessions each time; pair students to take turns pointing at pictures/objects/classmates and saying a full sentence using the correct pronoun and the correct be-form.	15 min	Guided practice, board work, pair drilling	Whiteboard, Mini whiteboards	Teacher monitoring of pair drills; board corrections	Students replace a given noun subject with its correct pronoun in a full sentence
Select the correct subject pronoun accurately under timed conditions using STEP-style multiple-choice items.	Distribute the STEP topic worksheet — Pronouns (10 Qs, 4-option multiple choice, e.g. "___ is my best friend." a) He b) Him c) His d) They); students work individually under timed conditions; circulate noting errors (e.g. choosing a plural pronoun for a singular noun, mixing up he/she); flag the most-missed items for the closing review — questions stay short and direct at this foundational stage to keep confidence high.	17 min	Individual timed practice, exam-condition simulation	STEP topic worksheet — Pronouns (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Timed written practice scored against the answer key	Students identify, unaided, the correct subject pronoun for a noun in a sentence
Self-correct the pronoun worksheet and consolidate Week 1's Foundations goal of forming a correct English sentence.	Students self-check their 10 answers against the worksheet's printed key, circling errors; briefly re-teach the most-missed item(s) on the board; close Week 1 with a rapid whole-class round combining all three sessions — teacher gives a noun or situation, students respond with pronoun + correct be-form (e.g. "my sisters, yesterday" → "They were…") — confirming students can form a correct English sentence, know their pronouns, and distinguish basic tenses before moving to Week 2's auxiliary verbs.	5 min	Self-correction, whole-class rapid review	STEP topic worksheet — Pronouns (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class), Whiteboard	Self-checked worksheet scores; oral rapid-fire combined review	Students correctly self-score their worksheet and combine pronoun + be-form correctly in a spoken sentence
