Lesson Plan

Class: First Secondary Unit 1 Session: 1 of 2 — Conversation Title: Big Changes — Conversation (SB p.11)

Day/Date: Week 3, Sun 24/3/1448 (Sep 6, 2026) Prior Knowledge: Students know this unit's vocabulary, grammar, and reading passage from Part 1.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Warm up with personal-background talk (About You, p.10) as a lead-in to today's conversation.	Quick pair exchange using 2–3 About You questions from p.10 (e.g. “Where is your family from?”); look at the photo on p.11 and predict what today's conversation will be about.	8 min	Pair work, prediction	SB pp. 10–11	Oral participation	Links personal background to today's dialogue topic
Understand the model conversation between Hans and Saud and identify its key expressions (in fact, you see, by the way, fit in).	Play the audio; Ss listen and follow in their books; Ss practice reading the conversation aloud in pairs, underlining the important/stressed words, then switch roles; teacher models the Real Talk expressions and asks who uses each and why (e.g. “by the way” = changing topic).	15 min	Listen-and-follow, pair reading, guided noticing	SB p.11, audio	Pair reading observed; oral Q&A on Real Talk box	Students identify one more place they could use “by the way” in daily conversation
Answer the About the Conversation comprehension questions and perform an original role-play (Your Turn) using the target expressions.	Pairs ask/answer the 5 About the Conversation questions; then, using the Your Turn checklist (place of birth, family origins, relatives, languages, what family members do/did), Ss prepare and practice their own role-play; 2–3 pairs perform for the class.	17 min	Pair Q&A, role-play preparation and performance	SB p.11, notebooks	Role-play performance, peer/teacher feedback	Students use the target expressions in a real conversation outside class
Consolidate today's functional language and set homework.	Quick class recap of the Real Talk expressions; assign Workbook p.223 for additional reading practice.	5 min	Whole-class wrap-up	Workbook p.223	Homework assigned	Workbook practice reinforces today's language independently

Class: First Secondary Unit 1 Session: 2 of 2 — Writing Title: Big Changes — Writing (SB pp. 14–15)
Day/Date: Week 3, Mon 25/3/1448 (Sep 7, 2026) Prior Knowledge: Students know this unit's vocabulary, grammar, and reading content.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Review capitalization rules (Writing Corner, p.14).	In groups, Ss scan the unit's texts for capitalized words and try to identify why each is capitalized; compare findings with the 3 rules in the Writing Corner box (sentence starts; names of people/places; days/months); Ss individually rewrite the 8 given sentences using correct capitals, then check in pairs and as a class.	12 min	Group noticing task, individual practice, pair/class check	SB p.14, Board	Capitalization exercise checked as a class	Students proofread their own notebook for capitalization errors
Read and analyze the discursive text “How the Internet has changed the world” and record its facts, advantages, and disadvantages.	Brainstorm as a class how people communicate nowadays; read the text and underline new information; complete the 3-column chart (Major Change in Communication / Education / Information — Fact, Advantages, Disadvantages, Situation in the past) individually, then compare in pairs.	15 min	Brainstorm, guided reading, individual/pair chart work	SB pp. 14–15	Completed chart checked in pairs, spot-checked by teacher	Students see the fact-to-impact structure they will reuse in their own essay
Plan and write a short discursive essay (80–100 words) about an event that brought major change to their own country, using the same fact/impact structure.	In groups, Ss brainstorm major changes in Saudi Arabia (business, education, technology, cities) and note them on the board; each student completes the Impact 1/2/3 chart (SB p.15) individually for their chosen event, then drafts a short essay; peers exchange essays for comments and corrections.	13 min	Group brainstorming, individual writing, peer feedback	SB p.15, notebooks	Teacher observation + peer feedback on draft	Students apply the same structure to write about a different change for homework
Consolidate the unit's writing skills and close Unit 1.	1–2 volunteers share their essay; assign Workbook pp. 224–226 for further writing practice and remind students to complete the Unit 1 Self Reflection checklist (SB p.19).	5 min	Whole-class sharing, self-assessment	Workbook pp. 224–226, SB p.19	Unit 1 Self Reflection checklist (SB p.19)	Students identify their own strengths/areas to review before Unit 2

Class: STEP Program Week 2 Session: 1 of 2 — Do / Does Title: STEP Foundations — Do / Does

Day/Date: Week 2, Day 1 of 2 Prior Knowledge: Students understand the verb “be” and its past forms was/were, and can identify subject pronouns and simple nouns as sentence subjects, from Week 1.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Introduce do/does as the helping verbs for present-simple negatives and questions, distinguishing them from the verb “be”.	Warm-up: write 2-3 present simple statements on the board (e.g. “She likes tea.”, “They play football.”) and ask students to make them negative or turn them into a question, noting that simply adding “not” or inverting doesn't work the way it did with “be”; introduce do/does as helping verbs for present simple negatives and questions: I/you/we/they+do, he/she/it+does; contrast explicitly with the am/is/are rule from Week 1 to prevent confusion between the two auxiliaries; model example negatives (I don't like tea. / She doesn't like tea.) and questions (Do you like tea? / Does she like tea?).	8 min	Whole-class elicitation, rule presentation, board work	Whiteboard	Oral questioning	Students choose do or does for a given pronoun/subject on the spot
Form present-simple negatives and questions with do/does, keeping the main verb in its base form.	Guided board practice: give 6-8 affirmative present simple sentences with different subjects and main verbs (e.g. “He works at a hospital.”, “The girls study every day.”) and have students come to the board to (a) make each negative with don't/doesn't and (b) turn each into a yes/no question with Do/Does, drilling that the main verb always returns to its base form after do/does (not “doesn't works” or “does she studies”); pair students to ask and answer 3 questions about daily habits using Do/Does correctly.	15 min	Guided practice, board work, pair drilling	Whiteboard, Mini whiteboards	Teacher monitoring of pair drills; board corrections	Students form one negative and one question using do/does with the verb in its correct base form
Select do or does accurately under timed conditions using STEP-style multiple-choice items.	Distribute the STEP topic worksheet — Do / Does (10 Qs, 4-option multiple choice, e.g. “___ your brother play tennis?” a) Do b) Does c) Is d) Are); students work individually under timed, exam-like conditions; circulate noting common errors (e.g. selecting is/are instead of do/does, keeping the -s on the main verb after does); flag the most-missed items for the closing review.	17 min	Individual timed practice, exam-condition simulation	STEP topic worksheet — Do / Does (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Timed written practice scored against the answer key	Students identify, unaided, whether do or does is needed for a given subject
Self-correct the do/does worksheet and consolidate the distinction between do/does and am/is/are.	Students self-check their 10 answers against the worksheet's printed key, circling errors; briefly re-teach the most-missed item(s) on the board, reinforcing the do/does vs. am/is/are distinction; close with a rapid oral round giving a subject and eliciting the correct auxiliary (do or does) before moving to Did in the next session.	5 min	Self-correction, whole-class rapid review	STEP topic worksheet — Do / Does (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class), Whiteboard	Self-checked worksheet scores; oral rapid-fire review	Students correctly self-score their worksheet and can restate the do/does rule unprompted

Class: STEP Program Week 2 Session: 2 of 2 — Did Title: STEP Foundations — Did

Day/Date: Week 2, Day 2 of 2 Prior Knowledge: Students can form present-simple negatives and questions with do/does from the previous session and know the past forms was/were from Week 1.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Introduce did as the single past-simple auxiliary used for every subject, unlike do/does.	Warm-up: write 2-3 past simple statements on the board (e.g. “He watched a movie.”, “They went home.”) and ask students to make them negative or into a question the way they did with do/does; introduce the rule that in the past simple, all subjects use one auxiliary — did — regardless of person or number, unlike do/does; emphasize that the main verb returns to its base form after did (I didn't watch, not I didn't watched); model example negatives (She didn't go.) and questions (Did they go?).	8 min	Whole-class elicitation, rule presentation, board work	Whiteboard	Oral questioning	Students state that did is used for every subject in past-simple negatives/questions
Form past-simple negatives and questions with did, keeping the main verb in its base form.	Guided board practice: give 6-8 past simple affirmative sentences with irregular and regular verbs and varied subjects (e.g. “She bought a new bag.”, “The boys played football yesterday.”) and have students come to the board to (a) make each negative with didn't and (b) turn each into a yes/no question with Did, drilling the base-verb rule each time (didn't buy, not didn't bought); pair students to ask and answer 3 questions about what they did yesterday using Did correctly.	15 min	Guided practice, board work, pair drilling	Whiteboard, Mini whiteboards	Teacher monitoring of pair drills; board corrections	Students form one negative and one question using did with the verb in its correct base form
Select did accurately under timed conditions using STEP-style multiple-choice items.	Distribute the STEP topic worksheet — Did (10 Qs, 4-option multiple choice, e.g. “___ she finish her homework?” a) Do b) Does c) Did d) Was); students work individually under timed, exam-like conditions; circulate noting common errors (e.g. keeping the past-tense ending on the main verb after did, confusing did with was/were); flag the most-missed items for the closing review.	17 min	Individual timed practice, exam-condition simulation	STEP topic worksheet — Did (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Timed written practice scored against the answer key	Students identify, unaided, that did (not was/were) is needed for a past-simple action verb
Self-correct the Did worksheet and consolidate all four auxiliaries covered across Weeks 1-2.	Students self-check their 10 answers against the worksheet's printed key, circling errors; briefly re-teach the most-missed item(s) on the board; close Week 2 with a rapid whole-class round contrasting all four auxiliaries covered so far (is/are/am, was/were, do/does, did) — teacher gives a subject and tense cue, students respond with the correct helping verb — confirming students can now correctly form present and past sentences and questions with be and the auxiliary verbs before moving into Complete Grammar.	5 min	Self-correction, whole-class rapid review	STEP topic worksheet — Did (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class), Whiteboard	Self-checked worksheet scores; oral rapid-fire combined review	Students correctly self-score their worksheet and select the correct auxiliary across be, do/does, and did on demand
