English Subject Lesson Plan

First Semester 1448

Teacher's Name: Fai Aldaghfaq

GENERAL OBJECTIVES OF TEACHING ENGLISH IN SAUDI ARABIA

1. To contribute to student's intellectual, personal and professional growth.
2. To enable student to acquire basic language skills (listening, speaking, reading and writing).
3. To develop student's awareness of the importance of English as a means of international communication.
4. To develop student's positive attitude towards learning English.
5. To enable student to acquire the necessary linguistic competence required in various life situations.
6. To enable student to acquire the linguistic competence required in different professions.
7. To develop student awareness about the cultural, economic, and social issues of his society and prepare him to participate in their solutions.
8. To develop the linguistic competence that enables student –in future- to present and explain Islamic concepts and issues, and participate in spreading Islam.
9. To enable student linguistically to present the culture and civilization of his nation.
10. To enable student linguistically to benefit from English-speaking nations, that would enhance the concepts of international cooperation that would develop understanding and respect of the cultural differences between nations.
11. To provide student with the linguistic basis that would enable him to participate in transforming other nations' scientific and technological advances that can enhance the progress of his nation.

Lesson Plan

Class: First Secondary Unit 2 Session: 1 of 3 — Vocabulary Title: Careers — Listen and Discuss (SB pp. 20–21)
Day/Date: Week 4, Sun 2/4/1448 (Sep 13, 2026) Prior Knowledge: Students can talk about routines and interests using the simple present, and recognize basic -ing verb forms.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Activate prior knowledge about jobs; predict the meaning of the unit theme “Careers” from the unit title and pictures.	Warm-up: mention an unusual job (e.g. hospital clown); ask students about other interesting/unusual jobs they know and write ideas on the board (e.g. “A hospital clown visits sick children and makes them laugh”); ask which jobs students would want and why; choose one job and elicit what skills/type of person it needs; ask students what they themselves are good at that could help them get an interesting job. Then have Ss open books to SB p.20, read the title “Careers” aloud, and look at the pictures to guess what the people do.	8 min	Whole-class brainstorming, elicitation, board work	SB p.20, Board	Oral questioning	Students name one job and one skill needed for it
Scan the three “Dream Jobs” texts (Car Sculptor–Salim Saif, Food Scientist–Matthew Duval, Animation Designer) for key facts, noticing present perfect forms.	Tell Ss to scan for facts about each person before reading in full; ask targeted questions per job (Car Sculptor: What is his name? Where does he work? What does he do? Food Scientist: same questions; Animation Designer: What skills do animators need? What projects require one? What is necessary for their work?). With books closed, play the audio once for listening, then again as Ss follow along in their books; ask “How long has Matthew Duval worked as a food scientist?” to draw attention to the present perfect progressive (He’s been working as a food scientist for the past 3 years).	15 min	Scanning, listen-and-follow, guided Q&A	SB p.20, class audio	Oral Q&A checked against the text	Students summarize, books closed, what each person does
Discuss the Top Twelve Qualities Employers Look For and complete Quick Check A (vocabulary) and B (true/false comprehension), SB p.21.	Read the title aloud, look at the picture and ask about the situation; play the audio of the Top Twelve Qualities list as Ss listen and follow; in groups, Ss discuss the meaning of each quality and give an example action, then one student per group presents a different quality to the class. Quick Check A: Ss work alone on which qualities the three people need and their own strongest/weakest qualities, then discuss in pairs before a class discussion. Quick Check B: Ss answer true/false alone, correcting false statements; check as a class (1 false–he makes clay models of cars; 2 true; 3 false–ice-cream flavors; 4 true; 5 false–they work with others).	17 min	Group discussion, individual work, whole-class check	SB p.21, audio, Board	Quick Check A & B checked as a class	Students name their own strongest of the 12 qualities
Turn facts about the three jobs into questions (Pair Work, SB p.21) and consolidate unit vocabulary.	Play the audio of the Pair Work example for Ss to listen and repeat; model another example with a volunteer, changing roles. Ss find factual sentences in the three p.20 texts and turn them into questions (model: “How long has Matthew been working as a food scientist?” — “He’s been working as a food scientist for three years.”); in pairs, Ss take turns asking and answering about the jobs in the reading and jobs they are interested in; monitor and call on several pairs to present. Assign Workbook p.229 for vocabulary practice.	5 min	Pair work, whole-class wrap-up	SB p.21, Workbook p.229	Teacher monitoring of pair-work questions	Homework: Workbook p.229 vocabulary practice

Class: First Secondary Unit 2 Session: 2 of 3 — Grammar Title: Careers — Grammar (SB pp. 22–23)

Day/Date: Week 4, Mon 3/4/1448 (Sep 14, 2026) Prior Knowledge: Students met present perfect progressive/simple examples in the Listen and Discuss texts (previous session) and know basic verb -ing forms.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Identify the form and use of the present perfect progressive versus the present perfect simple.	Point out the form have/has + been + verb-ing; have volunteers read the chart examples on SB p.22 aloud and identify the phrase showing how long the action has been happening (for two hours; since he was ten), clarifying that for is followed by a length of time and since by a specific time/date. Write example situations on the board ("Paul started reading at 9:00. It's 10:00 now." → Paul has been reading for one hour/since 9:00; "Tina turned on the TV at 7:00. It's 10:00 now." → She has been watching TV for three hours/since 7:00) and elicit sentences from Ss; ask Ss about their own hobbies to elicit true present perfect statements; explain the present perfect simple is used for the completion of an action, while the progressive shows the action continuing.	8 min	Explicit grammar presentation, board modeling, elicitation	SB pp.22–23, Board	Oral responses to elicitation questions	Students say one true present-perfect-progressive sentence about themselves
Find and analyze present perfect examples in context (Exercise A) and choose the correct verb form (Exercise B).	Exercise A: Ss work alone to find sentences on SB p.20 that are present perfect progressive and simple, saying which describe an ongoing action and which describe a changed/completed one; go over answers as a class, asking Ss for the clues they used. Exercise B: explain the contractions I've, you've, he's, she's, it's, we've, they've; Ss work individually to complete the four sentences with the correct verb forms, then check answers with a partner by reading the sentences aloud (Answers: 1. I've been looking for / haven't found; 2. has worked; 3. has been writing / hasn't received; 4. have you read).	15 min	Individual work, pair-check, whole-class review	SB pp.20, 22	Answers checked as a class against the key	Students self-correct one item before the class check
Personalize the present perfect (Exercise C) and build present perfect statements describing classmates' activities (Exercise D).	Exercise C: Ss work alone to answer four questions about their own study of English (How long have you been studying English? How many teachers have you had? How many books have you used? How long have you been using this book?), then ask and answer them with a partner; call on a few pairs to present. Exercise D: read the model (Hakim/photography studio/one year—taking pictures—photographer); in pairs, Ss build sentences for Faiz (restaurant/six months–bake things–chef), Refah (nursing home/two years–help old ladies–doctor), and Yahya (newspaper/a while–interview people–reporter); volunteers read their sentences for the class.	17 min	Personalized Q&A, pair work, guided sentence-building	SB p.22, Board	Teacher monitoring; volunteer sentences checked	Students write one true sentence with good at or interested in about themselves
Consolidate the present perfect progressive through a brief classmate interview (Exercise E) and picture description (Exercise F); assign homework.	Exercise E: in pairs, Ss briefly interview each other about one activity (e.g. Play a sport, Work part-time) and how long they've been doing it, filling in one row of the chart, modeling with the sample dialogue first. Exercise F: pairs look at the SB p.23 picture ("It's been raining for ten minutes") and ask/answer one model question about what a person has been doing ("What has the man at the magazine stand been doing during the rain?" — "He's been	5 min	Rapid pair practice, whole-class wrap-up	SB pp.22–23, Workbook pp.230–232	Teacher monitoring of pair exchanges	Homework: Workbook pp.230–232 grammar practice reading.”). Quick class recap of for/since. Assign Workbook pp.230–232 for grammar practice.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning

Lesson Plan

Class: First Secondary Unit 2 Session: 3 of 3 — Reading Title: Careers — Reading (SB pp. 26–27)

Day/Date: Week 4, Tue 4/4/1448 (Sep 15, 2026) Prior Knowledge: Students can scan a text for specific information and have practiced the present perfect progressive/simple in the Grammar session.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Use format, title, and subtitles to predict the content of the JobPool reading (Reading Strategy: Analyzing Format).	Explain that studying a reading's format and design gives insight into the topic; read the title "JobPool" and the subtitle "OPENINGS [Internships]" aloud and ask Ss to describe how the reading is arranged and what they expect to learn. Discuss the Before Reading question (find the sentences that say what a person should be able to do in each job); Ss scan the text individually and underline; briefly check predictions as a class. Have a short general discussion on ways to find jobs, including the pros and cons of using an internet job service like JobPool.	8 min	Format analysis, prediction, whole-class discussion	SB p.26	Oral prediction check	Students name one clue (title, subtitle, or layout) that hinted at the topic
Read and comprehend the JobPool company description and its three internships (Media, Archaeological, Environmental Engineering), noting present perfect forms (JobPool has been growing…, We've been uncovering ruins…).	Have Ss read the introductory paragraph and describe JobPool in their own words; play the audio once while Ss follow along, then again pausing after each internship to check understanding (What do TV interns research? — hot topics; Is it paid? — yes; year-round? — no, summer only; Where is the archaeological internship? — Pompeii; characteristics needed? — hardworking, patient, reliable, good with others; paid? — no; length? — 3 months; who should apply for the Saudi Arabia job? — civil engineering graduate students; what will they do? — construct roads, research centers, pipelines; skills needed? — read blueprints, some Arabic; paid? — no). Elicit and go over unfamiliar words on the board (hot, fast-paced, host, outgoing, firsthand, dig, ruins, painstaking, civil engineer, blueprints, cope with, accommodations).	15 min	Listen-and-follow, guided Q&A, vocabulary elicitation	SB pp.26–27, class audio, Board	Oral comprehension Q&A	Students state one requirement of the internship that interests them most
Check the Before Reading scan task (required abilities per job) and read Carl Barthes' résumé, completing the After Reading true/false task (SB p.27).	Go over the Before Reading answers as a class (Media Intern: find information quickly, summarize in clear language, fluent English, computer skills, friendly and outgoing; Archaeological Intern: careful, able to dig slowly; Environmental Engineering: read blueprints, knowledge of Arabic, cope with high temperatures). Play the audio for Carl Barthes' résumé as Ss follow along, pointing out its organization (Education, Experience, Honors/Awards, Skills). After Reading: Ss answer true/false 1–6 individually; call on volunteers to check answers, supporting them with information from the text (Answers: 1 true, 2 false, 3 false, 4 true, 5 true, 6 false).	17 min	Individual scanning, listen-and-follow, guided true/false check	SB p.27, class audio	After Reading true/false checked as a class with justification	Students say which job Carl is best qualified for and why
Discuss the résumé's content and personal job qualifications (Discussion questions 1–3, SB p.27); assign homework.	In groups, Ss discuss Discussion questions 1 and 2 (what information Carl includes and what jobs he's qualified for; what qualifications each student has and what jobs they're qualified for). Hold a class discussion for question 3 (what makes a person qualified for a job), listing ideas on the board. Assign Workbook pp.234–235 for additional writing practice at word and sentence	5 min	Group discussion, whole-class discussion	SB p.27, Board, Workbook pp.234–235	Teacher monitoring of group discussion	Homework: Workbook pp.234–235

Lesson Plan

Class: STEP Program Week 3 Session: 1 of 4 — Present Simple Title: STEP Foundations — Present Simple
Day/Date: Week 3, Day 1 of 4 Prior Knowledge: Students can identify subject pronouns (I, you, he/she/it, we, they) and form simple sentences with the verb "be" from Weeks 1-2.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Activate prior knowledge of pronouns and the verb "be"; introduce the present simple tense for facts, habits, and routines.	Warm-up: ask 2-3 students true/false questions about their daily routine ("You wake up at 6am. True or false?"); elicit the pattern (subject + base verb, add -s for he/she/it); draw a timeline on the board showing a repeated arrow to represent a habit, and write example sentences underlining the verb endings.	8 min	Whole-class elicitation, rule presentation, board work	Whiteboard, Timeline diagram	Oral questioning	Students state the correct present simple verb form for a given subject on the spot
Practise building present simple affirmative, negative, and question forms, including do/does.	Teacher models the transformation of a sentence (affirmative to negative to question) on the board with student input; students work in pairs completing sentence frames with the correct verb form and auxiliary; teacher circulates, correcting the common -s and do/does errors.	15 min	Guided practice, pair work, error correction	Whiteboard	Teacher monitoring during pair work; board review of sample answers	Students correctly transform an affirmative present simple sentence into its negative and question forms with a partner
Apply the present simple rule under timed, STEP-style multiple-choice conditions.	Distribute the STEP topic worksheet — Present Simple; students complete the 10 four-option multiple-choice questions individually under a timed condition that mirrors the STEP exam format; teacher keeps time and gives a one-minute warning.	17 min	Independent timed practice, STEP exam simulation	STEP topic worksheet — Present Simple (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Self-check against the on-page answer key; item-by-item review of missed questions	Students select the correct present simple answer choice within STEP-style time constraints
Consolidate the present simple rule and preview the "right now" meaning of present continuous for the next session.	Rapid whole-class review of the most common errors (missing -s, wrong auxiliary do/does); exit ticket asking students to write one true sentence about their own daily routine; teacher previews that not every action is a habit — some happen "right now," which is next lesson's focus.	5 min	Whole-class review, exit ticket	Whiteboard	Exit ticket	Students write one grammatically correct present simple sentence about their own routine unprompted

Class: STEP Program Week 3 Session: 2 of 4 — Present Continuous Title: STEP Foundations — Present Continuous

Day/Date: Week 3, Day 2 of 4 Prior Knowledge: Students can form present simple affirmative, negative, and question sentences and recognize frequency adverbs (always, usually, sometimes, never) from the previous session.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Contrast present continuous (happening now / temporary) with present simple (habits/facts); introduce be + verb-ing.	Warm-up: teacher mimes an action while narrating ("I am writing on the board right now") next to a stated habit ("I write lesson plans every week"); elicit the difference; draw two contrasting timelines — a repeated arrow for present simple versus a single boxed "now" point for present continuous — and present example sentences with spelling rules for -ing (drop silent e, double the final consonant).	8 min	Whole-class elicitation, contrastive rule presentation, board work	Whiteboard, Timeline diagram	Oral questioning	Students judge orally whether a teacher-given sentence describes a habit (present simple) or an action happening right now (present continuous)
Practise building present continuous affirmative, negative, and question forms using signal words.	Teacher models forming sentences with signal words (now, at the moment, Look!, Listen!) on the board; students work in pairs transforming base sentences into present continuous statements, negatives, and questions; teacher circulates, correcting be-verb agreement and -ing spelling.	15 min	Guided practice, pair work, error correction	Whiteboard	Teacher monitoring during pair work; sample answers reviewed on the board	Pairs correctly build a present continuous question using a given signal word
Apply present simple vs. present continuous discrimination under timed, STEP-style multiple-choice conditions.	Distribute the STEP topic worksheet — Present Continuous; students complete the 10 four-option multiple-choice questions individually under timed conditions, choosing between present simple and present continuous based on signal words and context; teacher keeps time.	17 min	Independent timed practice, STEP exam simulation	STEP topic worksheet — Present Continuous (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Self-check against the on-page answer key; item-by-item review of missed questions	Students choose the correct tense (simple or continuous) for a given context within STEP-style time constraints
Consolidate the present simple/continuous contrast and preview past simple for the next session.	Whole-class rapid review contrasting a habit sentence with a right-now sentence; exit ticket asking students to write one present continuous sentence describing what they are doing at that moment; teacher previews that next lesson moves the timeline into the past.	5 min	Whole-class review, exit ticket	Whiteboard, Timeline diagram	Exit ticket	Students write one grammatically correct present continuous sentence describing a current action unprompted

Class: STEP Program Week 3 Session: 3 of 4 — Past Simple Title: STEP Foundations — Past Simple

Day/Date: Week 3, Day 3 of 4 Prior Knowledge: Students can correctly choose between present simple and present continuous based on signal words and time context from the previous session.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Contrast past simple (completed past action) with present simple/continuous; introduce regular -ed and common irregular verbs.	Warm-up: teacher asks students what they did yesterday ("Did you watch TV yesterday?") and contrasts it with a present-tense example already on the board; draw a timeline with an X marking a finished point before "now"; present regular verb formation (-ed) alongside a short list of common irregular past forms (go-went, see-saw, have-had), highlighting spelling changes.	8 min	Whole-class elicitation, contrastive rule presentation, board work	Whiteboard, Timeline diagram	Oral questioning	Students supply the correct past simple form of a given regular or irregular verb on the spot
Practise building past simple affirmative, negative, and question forms with did/didn't.	Teacher models the affirmative-to-negative-to-question transformation on the board, emphasizing that did/didn't takes the tense so the main verb returns to base form; students work in pairs completing sentence frames with regular and irregular past forms; teacher circulates correcting base-verb errors after did/didn't.	15 min	Guided practice, pair work, error correction	Whiteboard	Teacher monitoring during pair work; board review of sample answers	Students correctly transform an affirmative past simple sentence into its negative and question forms with a partner
Apply the past simple rule under timed, STEP-style multiple-choice conditions.	Distribute the STEP topic worksheet — Past Simple; students complete the 10 four-option multiple-choice questions individually under timed conditions, including items testing irregular verb recall; teacher keeps time and gives a one-minute warning.	17 min	Independent timed practice, STEP exam simulation	STEP topic worksheet — Past Simple (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Self-check against the on-page answer key; item-by-item review of missed questions	Students select the correct past simple answer choice, including irregular verb forms, within STEP-style time constraints
Consolidate past simple and preview past continuous for the next session.	Rapid whole-class review of the most frequently confused irregular verbs; exit ticket asking students to write one true sentence about something they did yesterday; teacher previews that next lesson adds an "in-progress" past action that a past simple action can interrupt.	5 min	Whole-class review, exit ticket	Whiteboard	Exit ticket	Students write one grammatically correct past simple sentence unprompted, using either a regular or irregular verb

Class: STEP Program Week 3 Session: 4 of 4 — Past Continuous Title: STEP Foundations — Past Continuous

Day/Date: Week 3, Day 4 of 4 Prior Knowledge: Students can form past simple affirmative, negative, and question sentences with regular and common irregular verbs from the previous session.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Contrast past continuous (ongoing past action, often interrupted) with past simple (completed action); introduce was/were + verb-ing.	Warm-up: teacher tells a short story ("I was watching TV when the phone rang") and asks which action was already in progress and which one interrupted it; draw a timeline showing a long ongoing line (past continuous) crossed by a short arrow (past simple) at the moment of interruption; present example sentences with was/were + -ing alongside when/while as signal words.	8 min	Whole-class elicitation, contrastive rule presentation, board work	Whiteboard, Timeline diagram	Oral questioning	Students identify, from a teacher-given pair of clauses, which one describes the ongoing action and which one is the interruption
Practise combining past continuous and past simple in when/while sentences.	Teacher models building a two-clause sentence on the board using when (interruption) and while (two ongoing actions); students work in pairs combining sentence halves correctly, choosing was/were + -ing for the ongoing action and past simple for the interruption; teacher circulates correcting clause order and verb-form choice.	15 min	Guided practice, pair work, error correction	Whiteboard	Teacher monitoring during pair work; sample answers reviewed on the board	Pairs correctly combine a past continuous clause with a past simple clause using when or while
Apply past continuous vs. past simple discrimination under timed, STEP-style multiple-choice conditions.	Distribute the STEP topic worksheet — Past Continuous; students complete the 10 four-option multiple-choice questions individually under timed conditions, choosing the correct form for ongoing versus interrupting past actions; teacher keeps time.	17 min	Independent timed practice, STEP exam simulation	STEP topic worksheet — Past Continuous (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Self-check against the on-page answer key; item-by-item review of missed questions	Students choose the correct past tense (simple or continuous) for a given context within STEP-style time constraints
Consolidate all four Week 3 tenses and preview the perfect tenses starting next week.	Whole-class rapid review contrasting a completed action with an interrupted ongoing one; exit ticket asking students to write one past continuous sentence about what they were doing at a specific time yesterday; teacher previews that Week 4 introduces actions connected across two points in time.	5 min	Whole-class review, exit ticket	Whiteboard, Timeline diagram	Exit ticket	Students write one grammatically correct past continuous sentence unprompted
