Lesson Plan

Class: First Secondary Unit 2 Session: 1 of 2 — Conversation Title: Careers — Conversation (SB p. 25)

Day/Date: Week 5, Sun 9/4/1448 (Sep 20, 2026) Prior Knowledge: Students have practiced the present perfect progressive/simple (Grammar) and read about job requirements (Reading); they know unit vocabulary for job satisfaction.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Predict the topic of the conversation from the photos of Yousef and Khaled; activate awareness of job satisfaction.	Have Ss cover the conversation and look only at the two photos; ask “What is each person’s job? Do you think they like their jobs?” Play the audio once with the conversation still covered. Check general understanding: “Do they like their jobs?” (Khalid does, Yousef doesn’t).	8 min	Prediction from visuals, listen-only, whole-class Q&A	SB p.25, class audio	Oral prediction check	Students guess in one sentence why Yousef might be unhappy at work
Read and understand the Yousef–Khaled conversation, focusing on present perfect forms (“How long have you been working on TV?”, “I’ve been a reporter…for five years”) and idiomatic expressions.	Ss read the conversation silently, using context to guess unfamiliar words/phrases, then work in pairs to help each other understand them. Play the audio again as Ss follow along. Ask comprehension questions: What is Khalid’s job? (TV reporter) Why does he like it? (enjoys being out talking to people) Why doesn’t Yousef like his job? (it’s boring, day after day) What skills does Yousef say he has? (good at solving problems, organized, reliable, hardworking). Real Talk: discuss who says day after day/day in day out, bored to death, talked me out of it, and luckily, and why.	15 min	Silent reading, listen-and-follow, guided Q&A, idiom discussion	SB p.25, class audio	Oral comprehension Q&A on the conversation and expressions	Students use one Real Talk expression in a sentence about themselves
Underline m/n/ŋ sounds and key expressions in the conversation; complete About the Conversation true/false and choose a Your Ending.	In pairs, Ss underline words containing m, n, and ing sounds and the five expressions (day after day, day in day out, bored to death, talked someone out of it, luckily), then read the conversation aloud together, producing the sounds and expressions correctly. About the Conversation: Ss answer true/false 1–5 individually, underlining the supporting phrase; check as a class (Answers: 1 true, 2 false, 3 false, 4 true, 5 true). Your Ending: Ss choose alone which piece of advice Khaled might give Yousef (options 1–4 or their own idea), then form groups to compare and justify their choices.	17 min	Paired reading practice, individual comprehension check, small-group discussion	SB p.25	About the Conversation checked as a class; group justification of Your Ending	Students explain in one sentence why they chose their ending
Role-play an extended interview imagining Yousef in a new job (Your Turn); assign homework.	In pairs, Ss role-play an interview imagining Yousef found another job and has been working there for a year, asking what he’s been doing and what changes have occurred in his career; a few pairs present their interview to the class. Assign Workbook p.233 for additional reading practice.	5 min	Role-play, whole-class presentation	SB p.25, Workbook p.233	Teacher monitoring of role-play presentations	Homework: Workbook p.233

Class: First Secondary Unit 2 Session: 2 of 2 — Writing Title: Careers — Writing (SB pp. 28–29)

Day/Date: Week 5, Mon 10/4/1448 (Sep 21, 2026) Prior Knowledge: Students have read the three JobPool internships (Reading session) and are familiar with the qualities list on SB p.21.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Activate prior knowledge of job qualifications through a picture discussion and preview the writing task.	In pairs, Ss discuss the picture on SB p.28 using guiding questions (Who do you think the people are? What are they doing? Where are they? What do you think has happened? What qualities and qualifications does this job need?); volunteers report their ideas to the class.	8 min	Pair discussion, whole-class reporting	SB p.28	Oral reporting	Students name one quality needed for the job in the picture
Complete Part A chart, extracting qualities, qualifications, and experience for the three JobPool internships (Media, Archaeological, Engineering) from the SB p.26 texts.	Read the directions for A.1 with the class and check the chart headings, asking e.g. “Do you remember which qualities the media intern needs? Where will you find that information?” Ss re-read the JobPool texts on p.26 individually and make notes, then form groups to compare notes; circulate and monitor, helping when needed; call on students to report, accepting justified variations (Sample answers: Media Intern — find information quickly, summarize in clear language, fluent English, computer skills, friendly/outgoing; no qualifications listed; experience in research/PR. Archaeological Intern — careful and methodical, interested in history/archaeology; no qualifications or experience required. Engineering Intern — read blueprints, some knowledge of Arabic, tolerate high temperatures; degree in civil engineering/graduate student; no experience required).	15 min	Individual note-taking, group comparison, whole-class reporting	SB pp.26, 28	Chart checked as a class with justified answers	Students state which internship requires a formal qualification and which doesn’t Decide on a personal job preference (A.2–4) and analyze the model cover letter for purpose, audience, and structure (Part B).	A.2: Ss decide individually which job they would apply for and why, then compare with a partner. A.3: in pairs, Ss discuss which job they would not apply for and why, making notes. A.4: groups collate notes to agree on the class’s most and least popular job; report back, confirming by a show of hands recorded on the board. Part B: introduce the cover letter (also called a letter of application); elicit what Ss remember about it (Who is it addressed to? What’s its purpose? What information does it include?); direct Ss to the SB p.29 letter from Saud Khalid to Ahmed Alsaaleh (Human Resources Manager, Zero A Company) applying for the Public Relations position, and to the Writing Corner checklist (recipient’s name/title/address; introductory purpose statement; paragraph on why you’re right for the job; closing thanks); Ss identify these four features in the model letter.	17 min	Individual decision-making, pair/group discussion, guided text analysis	SB pp.28–29	Teacher monitoring of group decisions; class identification of letter features	Students point to the sentence in the model letter that shows “why I’m the right person”
Begin drafting an original cover letter for a chosen JobPool position, using notes about themselves; assign homework.	Ss individually make notes about themselves in the YOU column of the p.29 chart (Qualities, Qualifications, Experience) for their favorite JobPool job, then start drafting the opening/purpose paragraph of their own cover letter, referring to the Writing Corner checklist. Assign Workbook p.236 for additional writing practice above word and sentence level, and remind Ss they	5 min	Individual guided writing, teacher circulation	SB p.29, Workbook p.236	Teacher spot-checks opening drafts for required elements	Homework: Workbook p.236; finish drafting the cover letter for next class will finish and exchange their drafts with a partner to edit next class.

Class: STEP Program Week 4 Session: 1 of 4 — Present Perfect Title: STEP Foundations — Present Perfect

Day/Date: Week 4, Day 1 of 4 Prior Knowledge: Students can correctly choose between past simple and past continuous in interrupted-action sentences using when/while from the previous session, completing the Week 3 basic tenses set.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Contrast present perfect (unspecified past time, connected to now) with past simple (specific finished time); introduce have/has + past participle.	Warm-up: teacher contrasts “I saw that film yesterday” (specific past time) with “I have seen that film” (unspecified, relevant now) and asks which sentence tells us exactly when; draw a timeline with a dotted arrow rising from the past into “now” for present perfect next to past simple's single fixed point; present example sentences with common irregular past participles and signal words (already, yet, just, ever, never, since, for).	8 min	Whole-class elicitation, contrastive rule presentation, board work	Whiteboard, Timeline diagram	Oral questioning	Students judge orally whether a teacher-given sentence needs past simple (specific time) or present perfect (unspecified time)
Practise building present perfect affirmative, negative, and question forms with have/has and past participles.	Teacher models the affirmative-to-negative-to-question transformation on the board, drilling common irregular past participles (seen, done, gone, eaten); students work in pairs completing sentence frames, choosing correctly between past simple and present perfect based on a given signal word; teacher circulates correcting have/has agreement and participle form.	15 min	Guided practice, pair work, error correction	Whiteboard	Teacher monitoring during pair work; board review of sample answers	Pairs correctly build a present perfect sentence using a given signal word (already, yet, just, ever, never)
Apply the present perfect rule under timed, STEP-style multiple-choice conditions.	Distribute the STEP topic worksheet — Present Perfect; students complete the 10 four-option multiple-choice questions individually under timed conditions, including items that test present perfect vs. past simple discrimination; teacher keeps time and gives a one-minute warning.	17 min	Independent timed practice, STEP exam simulation	STEP topic worksheet — Present Perfect (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Self-check against the on-page answer key; item-by-item review of missed questions	Students select the correct present perfect answer choice within STEP-style time constraints
Consolidate present perfect and preview past perfect for the next session.	Rapid whole-class review of the most commonly confused irregular past participles; exit ticket asking students to write one true present perfect sentence about their own experience (e.g., “I have never...”); teacher previews that next lesson pushes the timeline one step further back, to compare two past events.	5 min	Whole-class review, exit ticket	Whiteboard	Exit ticket	Students write one grammatically correct present perfect sentence unprompted

Class: STEP Program Week 4 Session: 2 of 4 — Past Perfect Title: STEP Foundations — Past Perfect

Day/Date: Week 4, Day 2 of 4 Prior Knowledge: Students can form present perfect sentences with have/has and past participles, and use signal words such as already, yet, and since, from the previous session.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Introduce past perfect (had + past participle) as the "earlier of two past actions"; contrast with past simple and present perfect.	Warm-up: teacher tells a two-event story ("When I arrived, the film had already started") and asks which event happened first; draw a timeline with two marked past points, showing the past perfect event further back than the past simple event, both clearly to the left of "now" (unlike present perfect); present example sentences with had + past participle and signal words (before, after, by the time, already).	8 min	Whole-class elicitation, contrastive rule presentation, board work	Whiteboard, Timeline diagram	Oral questioning	Students identify, from a teacher-given pair of past events, which one happened first and needs past perfect
Practise sequencing two past events using past perfect and past simple with before/after/by the time.	Teacher models building a two-clause sentence on the board, placing had + past participle on the earlier event and past simple on the later one; students work in pairs sequencing given event pairs correctly using before, after, or by the time; teacher circulates correcting clause order and verb-form choice.	15 min	Guided practice, pair work, error correction	Whiteboard	Teacher monitoring during pair work; sample answers reviewed on the board	Pairs correctly sequence two past events using past perfect for the earlier one and past simple for the later one
Apply the past perfect rule under timed, STEP-style multiple-choice conditions.	Distribute the STEP topic worksheet — Past Perfect; students complete the 10 four-option multiple-choice questions individually under timed conditions, choosing between past simple and past perfect based on event sequence; teacher keeps time.	17 min	Independent timed practice, STEP exam simulation	STEP topic worksheet — Past Perfect (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Self-check against the on-page answer key; item-by-item review of missed questions	Students select the correct past perfect answer choice within STEP-style time constraints
Consolidate past perfect and preview future simple for the next session.	Whole-class rapid review contrasting the two-past-event pattern; exit ticket asking students to write one past perfect sentence about two things that happened in a specific order; teacher previews that next lesson moves the timeline forward instead of back, into the future.	5 min	Whole-class review, exit ticket	Whiteboard, Timeline diagram	Exit ticket	Students write one grammatically correct past perfect sentence unprompted

Class: STEP Program Week 4 Session: 3 of 4 — Future Simple Title: STEP Foundations — Future Simple

Day/Date: Week 4, Day 3 of 4 Prior Knowledge: Students can correctly sequence two past events using past perfect and past simple with before/after/by the time from the previous session.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Introduce future simple (will + base verb) for predictions, spontaneous decisions, and promises; contrast with the past-oriented tenses covered so far.	Warm-up: teacher asks students to predict tomorrow's weather ("It will rain tomorrow") and contrasts this with a past perfect example already on the board, noting the timeline now points forward from "now" instead of back; draw a timeline with an arrow moving right from "now" into the future; present example sentences with will + base verb and signal words (tomorrow, next week, soon).	8 min	Whole-class elicitation, contrastive rule presentation, board work	Whiteboard, Timeline diagram	Oral questioning	Students supply a correct future simple sentence for a given prediction or promise prompt
Practise building future simple affirmative, negative, and question forms with will/won't.	Teacher models the affirmative-to-negative-to-question transformation on the board, showing that will stays constant for every subject; students work in pairs completing sentence frames with will/won't and a future time signal word; teacher circulates correcting base-verb form after will.	15 min	Guided practice, pair work, error correction	Whiteboard	Teacher monitoring during pair work; board review of sample answers	Pairs correctly build a future simple sentence with will or won't using a given signal word
Apply the future simple rule under timed, STEP-style multiple-choice conditions.	Distribute the STEP topic worksheet — Future Simple; students complete the 10 four-option multiple-choice questions individually under timed conditions; teacher keeps time and gives a one-minute warning.	17 min	Independent timed practice, STEP exam simulation	STEP topic worksheet — Future Simple (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Self-check against the on-page answer key; item-by-item review of missed questions	Students select the correct future simple answer choice within STEP-style time constraints
Consolidate future simple and preview the mixed-tense "Tense Tracks" review closing the unit.	Rapid whole-class review of will/won't formation; exit ticket asking students to write one true future simple sentence about their plans for next week; teacher previews that the next session brings all seven tenses from Weeks 3-4 together on one shared timeline for review.	5 min	Whole-class review, exit ticket	Whiteboard	Exit ticket	Students write one grammatically correct future simple sentence unprompted

Class: STEP Program Week 4 Session: 4 of 4 — Tense Tracks Title: STEP Foundations — Tense Tracks (Mixed-Tense Review)

Day/Date: Week 4, Day 4 of 4 Prior Knowledge: Students have been introduced individually to present simple, present continuous, past simple, past continuous, present perfect, past perfect, and future simple across Weeks 3-4.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Review and consolidate all seven tenses studied so far on one shared visual timeline ("Tense Tracks").	Teacher draws a master timeline on the board marking all seven tenses in order, with one example sentence and its typical signal words under each; whole-class recall relay — teacher calls out a tense name and a student supplies a correct example sentence, building a class "Tense Tracks" wall chart as reference.	8 min	Whole-class review, visual mapping, recall relay	Whiteboard, Timeline diagram	Oral questioning during the recall relay	Students name the correct tense when the teacher gives an example sentence or a signal word
Practise mixed-tense discrimination by sorting example sentences under the correct tense on the shared timeline.	Teacher gives students a set of mixed sentences (covering all seven tenses from Weeks 3-4) written on the board or on cards; in pairs, students sort each sentence under the matching column of the Tense Tracks chart using context clues and signal words; teacher checks each column together with the class and clarifies any confused pairs (e.g., past simple vs. present perfect).	15 min	Pair work, sorting/categorization activity, guided correction	Whiteboard, Timeline diagram	Teacher monitoring during pair work; whole-class chart check	Pairs correctly place a mixed set of sentences under their matching tense on the shared timeline
Apply mixed-tense discrimination under timed, STEP-style multiple-choice conditions covering all tenses from Weeks 3-4.	Distribute the STEP topic worksheet — Tense Tracks Mixed Review; students complete the 10 four-option multiple-choice questions individually under timed conditions, each item requiring the student to identify the correct tense from context and signal words across all seven tenses; teacher keeps time.	17 min	Independent timed practice, STEP exam simulation	STEP topic worksheet — Tense Tracks Mixed Review (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Self-check against the on-page answer key; item-by-item review of missed questions	Students correctly select the tense signaled by context clues in mixed practice, without relying on question order for a hint
Consolidate the full tenses unit and diagnose any remaining gaps before the next stage of the curriculum.	Quick whole-class show-of-hands per worksheet item to flag the most commonly missed tenses; exit ticket asking students to write one sentence each in three different tenses of their choice; teacher notes recurring error patterns to inform planning for the next foundations topic.	5 min	Whole-class diagnostic review, exit ticket	Whiteboard	Exit ticket; teacher error-pattern tracking	Students independently produce grammatically correct sentences in at least three different tenses
