Lesson Plan

Class: First Secondary Unit 3 Session: 1 of 3 — Conversation Title: What Will Be, Will Be — Conversation: The Intelligent Home of the Future (SB p. 39)

Day/Date: Week 7, Sun 23/4/1448 (Oct 4, 2026) Prior Knowledge: Students can use will forms accurately from the Unit 3 Grammar lesson and are familiar with the vocabulary from the Tulsa Time Capsule reading.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Activate background knowledge about “intelligent houses” and robot housework; predict the conversation content from the photos.	Ss cover the printed conversation on SB p.39 and look only at the photos; ask “What is the house like?”; explain the term “intelligent house” (an electronic system that does many things automatically); ask Ss: “Would you like a robot to do your housework? What are the advantages/disadvantages?”; list ideas on the board.	8 min	Prediction from images, whole-class brainstorming	SB p.39, Board	Oral responses to warm-up questions	Students connect the idea of “intelligent” technology to devices in their own homes
Understand the features of the intelligent home described in the conversation (fingerprint entry, automatic lighting/climate, “smart” refrigerator, cleaning robot); find words practiced in the Pronunciation section.	Ss scan the conversation and read only the reporter’s questions first; play the audio while Ss keep the conversation covered and just listen; Ss then read the conversation silently, underlining unstressed words (a, and, can, to, of) practiced earlier in the unit; play the audio again as Ss follow along; in pairs, Ss practice reading the conversation aloud, then switch roles (Reporter/Engineer) and repeat.	15 min	Listen-first approach, silent reading, paired role-play	SB p.39, class audio	Teacher monitors pronunciation and fluency during paired reading	Students explain the Real Talk expressions “Certainly” and “No kidding?” and who uses them
Answer comprehension questions about the intelligent house features, what happens after entering, phone-based fridge checks, and the reporter’s interest in the robot.	In pairs, Ss ask and answer the four “About the Conversation” questions (e.g. “What will happen after a person enters the house?”), then switch roles; teacher asks a few extra questions in students’ own words (e.g. “What makes the refrigerator ‘smart’?”); go over the Real Talk box and ask why the reporter is pleasantly surprised about the robot.	17 min	Pair Q&A, whole-class review, guided discussion	SB p.39	Oral Q&A checked by cold-calling pairs	Students discuss one feature they would add to their own future smart home
Apply future forms to describe an original “intelligent house” design (Your Turn task, p.39).	Ss individually sketch or describe an intelligent house they would like to have, including features from the conversation plus their own ideas, writing sentences using will; a few volunteers present their intelligent house to the class; assign Workbook p.243 for additional reading practice.	5 min	Individual creative task, short class presentations	SB p.39, Workbook p.243	Teacher review of “Your Turn” sentences for correct use of will	Homework: Workbook p.243 reading practice

Class: First Secondary Unit 3 Session: 2 of 3 — Writing Title: What Will Be, Will Be — Writing: Keeper of Hidden Treasure (SB pp. 42–43)
Day/Date: Week 7, Mon 24/4/1448 (Oct 5, 2026) Prior Knowledge: Students can use past-tense narrative forms and are familiar with the "hidden treasure" theme from the Unit 3 Reading lesson.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Predict who "the keeper" is and where treasure might be hidden, using the title and photos on SB p.42.	Direct attention to the picture and title "Keeper of Hidden Treasure"; in pairs, Ss discuss what they see and speculate on who/what the "keeper" could be and where the treasure might be hidden; volunteers report ideas, which the teacher lists on the board.	8 min	Prediction, pair discussion, whole-class sharing	SB p.42, Board	Oral sharing of predictions	Students compare their predictions with the real story after reading
Understand the story of the Korean fisherman's octopus-led discovery of 900-year-old pottery; take notes on who/where/how/what/what-happened-next.	Ss read the text individually to find the treasure and its location, comparing with their earlier predictions; play the audio as Ss follow along and mark stressed words; Ss make notes in the five boxes (Who found the treasure? Where? How? What was the treasure? What did he do with it?) and compare notes in pairs; check answers as a class.	15 min	Listen-and-follow, note-taking, pair comparison	SB p.42, class audio	Notes chart checked as a class	Small-group discussion of whether students would have contacted the museum too, and why
Identify the key elements of a narrative (audience, characters, setting, plot, time, sequence, opening/closing) using the Writing Corner checklist on p.43.	In small groups, Ss brainstorm "hidden treasure" stories they have read or heard and share one with the class; go through the Writing Corner guidelines point by point, discussing how each element shapes a story, using contrasting examples (e.g. "He was lost in the desert" vs. "He was lost in the mall"); Ss answer Writing Corner questions 1–2 about what creates suspense/reaction and their reaction to the octopus story.	17 min	Group brainstorming, guided discussion, teacher modeling	SB p.43, Board	Teacher monitors group brainstorming and class discussion responses	Students identify one technique (e.g. withholding information) they will use to create suspense in their own story
Plan an original "hidden treasure" story using the graphic organizer (why hidden, who, where, what, who found it, how, what happened) on p.43.	In small groups, Ss complete the planning chart on SB p.43, remaining free to adapt their earlier brainstormed story; groups begin drafting the story using past-tense narrative forms; assign finishing the full written story plus Workbook p.246 as homework, to be exchanged with a partner for feedback next class.	5 min	Group planning, guided drafting, homework assignment	SB p.43, Workbook p.246	Teacher checks completed planning charts before students leave	Homework: complete and bring the "hidden treasure" story draft; Workbook p.246

Class: First Secondary Unit 3 Session: 3 of 3 — Expansion Review Title: What Will Be, Will Be — EXPANSION Units 1–3: Language Review (SB pp. 48–49)

Day/Date: Week 7, Tue 25/4/1448 (Oct 6, 2026) Prior Knowledge: Students have completed Units 1–3 and can use the present perfect progressive, present perfect, and future forms individually.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Review the form and use of the present perfect progressive (have/has + been + verb-ing) to describe how long an action has been happening, linking back to Unit 2 Grammar (p.22).	Write on the board: "I lost my keys. I ___ (look) for them all day."; elicit "have been looking"; have Ss form the question "Have you been looking for your keys?"; briefly recap that the present perfect progressive answers "how long," referring back to Unit 2 Grammar p.22 as needed.	8 min	Guided elicitation, whole-class review, board modeling	SB p.48, Board	Oral responses to elicitation questions	Students generate one similar sentence about their own week
Form present perfect progressive questions appropriate to six pictured situations (Language Review Exercise A, p.48).	Ss work individually to write a question for each of the six pictures (model given: "Have you been fighting?"), then check answers in pairs, taking turns asking and answering each question aloud; call on Ss to share their questions with the class and confirm the range of acceptable answers (e.g. "Have you been waiting for the bus a long time?", "Have you been jogging?").	15 min	Individual writing, pair Q&A practice, class sharing	SB p.48	Teacher checks written questions and pair-work accuracy	Students ask a partner one original present perfect progressive question about their day
Choose correctly between the present perfect progressive and present perfect to complete six sentences (Exercise B); form present perfect questions for five professions (Exercise C).	Contrast "She has cooked dinner" (completed) vs. "She has been cooking dinner" (in progress) on the board; Ss complete Exercise B individually, then volunteers read completed sentences and explain the context clue used; for Exercise C, Ss individually write a present-perfect question for each profession (pilot, author, baker, football player, English student), modeled on "How many patients have you seen/treated today?"; check answers as a class, noting more than one correct question is possible.	17 min	Contrastive analysis, individual practice, class review	SB pp.48–49, Board	Exercises B and C answers checked as a class	Students ask a classmate one Exercise C-style question about a hobby or job they are interested in
Review the three future tense forms (will, be going to, future progressive) from Unit 3 Grammar (p.36) by predicting future behaviors around computer/internet use (Exercise F, p.49).	Briefly remind Ss of the three future forms studied in Unit 3; in pairs, Ss discuss Exercise F's prompt — which things mentioned in the "Computer and the Internet" discussion-forum text (e.g. using spell-check) people will still be doing in 100 years — modeled on "I think people will still be using spell-checks in 100 years" / "I don't think people will use spell-checks in the future"; pairs share one prediction with the class; assign Workbook pp.249–251 to review the grammar of Units 1–3 and remind Ss to complete the Unit 3 Self Reflection checklist (SB p.47) for self-study.	5 min	Pair discussion, whole-class sharing, homework assignment	SB p.49, Workbook pp.249–251	Teacher monitors pair predictions for correct future-form use	Homework: Workbook pp.249–251 review of Units 1–3 grammar; complete Unit 3 Self Reflection checklist (SB p.47)

Based directly on your MegaGoal 1 Student Book and Teacher's Guide, Unit 3 "What Will Be, Will Be" (SB pp. 34–53). Page references and exercise names match your actual textbook.

Class: STEP Program Week 6 Session: 1 of 5 — Pronouns & Articles Title: STEP Complete Grammar — Pronouns & Articles

Day/Date: Week 6, Day 1 of 5 Prior Knowledge: Students have completed all six Foundations-stage topics from Week 5 and now begin the Complete Grammar stage, starting with the pronoun and article systems.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Activate prior knowledge of nouns; review Subject & Object Pronouns, introduce Reflexive Pronouns and Indefinite Pronouns, and review Articles (a/an/the) in one integrated warm-up.	Warm-up: board a short paragraph with pronoun and article gaps; elicit subject pronouns (I, you, he...) vs. object pronouns (me, you, him...); add reflexive pronouns (myself, himself, themselves) for actions where the subject and object are the same person; add indefinite pronouns (someone, anything, everybody) for unspecified people or things; review article rules — a/an chosen by sound, "the" for specific or previously mentioned nouns, zero article for general plurals — with one example of each in context.	8 min	Elicitation, rule presentation, integrated review	Whiteboard	Oral questioning	Students orally identify the pronoun type (subject/object/reflexive/indefinite) for 4 given words
Practice all four pronoun categories and article selection through guided sentence-level exercises.	Guided practice — Ss rotate through four short exercise sets on one handout (2-3 items each): subject/object pronoun substitution, reflexive pronoun completion ("He hurt ___"), indefinite pronoun gap-fill, and article gap-fill (a/an/the/zero); pair-check each set; teacher reviews one item per category on the board, focusing on common STEP errors — reflexive vs. object pronoun confusion, "a" vs. "an" before vowel sounds, and missing "the" with superlatives.	15 min	Pair work, guided practice, rotating exercise sets, error correction	Whiteboard, four-part handout	Pair-check, teacher monitoring	Students correctly complete at least 8 of 11 items across the four sets
Apply combined pronoun and article rules to STEP-style multiple-choice questions.	Individual timed practice on two STEP topic worksheets — Pronouns (10 MCQs covering subject, object, reflexive, and indefinite pronouns) and Articles (10 MCQs) — with a 15-minute timer covering both; Ss self-check against the on-page answer keys; teacher reviews the most commonly missed items from each worksheet, focusing on distractor logic such as "myself" vs. "me" and omission of "the" with unique nouns.	17 min	Independent timed practice, self-correction, distractor analysis	STEP topic worksheet — Pronouns (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class); STEP topic worksheet — Articles (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Self-checked worksheet scores	Students score 14/20 combined or higher across both worksheets
Consolidate pronoun and article rules and preview word formation and confusing word pairs.	Rapid-fire oral review — teacher gives a noun, Ss supply the matching subject/object/reflexive pronoun and the correct article; exit ticket: write one sentence using a reflexive pronoun and one using "the" correctly; brief preview of the next session.	5 min	Rapid recall, exit ticket	Index cards, whiteboard	Exit ticket review	Students produce two grammatically correct sentences unaided

Class: STEP Program Week 6 Session: 2 of 5 — Word Formation & Confusing Word Pairs Title: STEP Complete Grammar — Word Formation & Confusing Word Pairs
Day/Date: Week 6, Day 2 of 5 Prior Knowledge: Students reviewed pronouns and articles in the previous session and are ready to expand vocabulary-manipulation skills for STEP's word-formation and error-identification question types.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Introduce Word Formation using prefixes and suffixes to change a word's class, and introduce commonly Confusing Word Pairs.	Warm-up: board the word "happy" and elicit derived forms using suffixes ("happiness" = noun, "happily" = adverb) and a prefix example ("unhappy" = negative adjective); present a short chart of common suffixes by word class (-tion/-ment = noun, -ful/-less = adjective, -ly = adverb, -ize/-fy = verb); then introduce three confusing word pairs STEP frequently tests — its/it's, their/there/they're, affect/effect — with one clarifying example sentence each.	8 min	Elicitation, rule presentation, board work	Whiteboard	Oral questioning	Students orally form 2 derived words from a given root
Practice deriving the correct word form in context and distinguishing confusing word pairs.	Guided practice — Ss complete a two-part handout: Part A (6 sentences, choose the correct derived form of a given root word to fit the blank's part of speech), Part B (6 sentences, choose the correct word from a confusing pair, e.g. its/it's, their/there/they're, affect/effect, than/then); pair-check; teacher reviews on the board, reinforcing how to identify the required part of speech from sentence structure — a key STEP strategy.	15 min	Pair work, guided practice, error correction, part-of-speech analysis strategy	Whiteboard, two-part handout	Pair-check, teacher monitoring	Students correctly complete at least 9 of 12 items combined
Apply word-formation and confusing-word-pair rules to STEP-style multiple-choice questions.	Individual timed practice on two STEP topic worksheets — Word Formation (10 MCQs) and Confusing Word Pairs (10 MCQs) — with a 15-minute timer covering both; Ss self-check against the on-page answer keys; teacher reviews commonly missed items, modeling the "check the blank's grammatical role first" strategy for word-formation items and the meaning-substitution test for confusing pairs (e.g. substituting "it is" to check its/it's).	17 min	Independent timed practice, self-correction, strategy modeling	STEP topic worksheet — Word Formation (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class); STEP topic worksheet — Confusing Word Pairs (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Self-checked worksheet scores	Students score 14/20 combined or higher across both worksheets
Consolidate word-formation and confusing-word-pair rules and preview advanced present tense review.	Rapid drill: teacher gives a root word, Ss call out its noun/adjective/adverb forms; exit ticket: write one sentence correctly using "their/there/they're" and one sentence using a suffix-derived word; brief preview of the next session.	5 min	Rapid recall, exit ticket	Index cards, whiteboard	Exit ticket review	Students produce two grammatically correct sentences unaided

Class: STEP Program Week 6 Session: 3 of 5 — Present Tenses (Advanced Review) Title: STEP Complete Grammar — Present Tenses Advanced Review

Day/Date: Week 6, Day 3 of 5 Prior Knowledge: Students completed foundational present-tense practice in Weeks 3-4 and Word Formation & Confusing Word Pairs in the previous session; this session revisits Present Simple, Present Continuous, Present Perfect, and Present Perfect Continuous at Complete-Grammar difficulty with more challenging distractors and mixed contexts.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Review and contrast Present Simple, Present Continuous, Present Perfect, and Present Perfect Continuous, focusing on the subtle meaning distinctions tested at STEP's advanced level.	Warm-up: board four sentences using the same verb ("study") in each present tense — "I study English." / "I am studying English." / "I have studied English for 3 years." / "I have been studying English for 3 years." — and elicit the meaning each conveys (habit, action in progress, completed action with present relevance, duration with emphasis on continuity); highlight signal words (always/every day; now/right now; already/yet/ever; since/for, especially paired with "lately/recently").	8 min	Elicitation, contrastive analysis, rule presentation	Whiteboard	Oral questioning	Students orally identify which tense fits 3 given signal-word contexts
Practice distinguishing and correctly forming all four present tenses in mixed-context sentences.	Guided practice — Ss complete a handout of 10 mixed sentences requiring the correct present-tense form of the verb in brackets, with several items designed to test signal-word discrimination between perfect and perfect continuous (e.g. "I have read/have been reading this book all afternoon"); pair-check; teacher reviews the 3-4 trickiest items on the board, explaining why the distractor tense is wrong in each case.	15 min	Pair work, guided practice, contrastive error correction	Whiteboard, mixed present-tense handout	Pair-check, teacher monitoring	Students correctly complete at least 7 of 10 items
Apply advanced present-tense discrimination skills to STEP-style multiple-choice questions with realistic distractors.	Individual timed practice on the STEP topic worksheet (Present Tenses — Advanced Review, 10 MCQs featuring close distractor pairs across all four present tenses); 10-minute timer; Ss self-check against the on-page answer key; teacher reviews commonly missed items, reinforcing the signal-word strategy and the "finished vs. ongoing" test for perfect vs. perfect continuous.	17 min	Independent timed practice, self-correction, distractor analysis	STEP topic worksheet — Present Tenses Advanced Review (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Self-checked worksheet score	Students score 7/10 or higher
Consolidate present-tense mastery and preview the Past Tenses advanced review.	Rapid drill: teacher gives a signal word (e.g. "since 2020", "right now", "every day"), Ss call out the matching tense; exit ticket: write one sentence each using Present Perfect and Present Perfect Continuous correctly; brief preview of the next session.	5 min	Rapid recall, exit ticket	Index cards, whiteboard	Exit ticket review	Students produce two grammatically correct sentences unaided

Class: STEP Program Week 6 Session: 4 of 5 — Past Tenses (Advanced Review) Title: STEP Complete Grammar — Past Tenses Advanced Review

Day/Date: Week 6, Day 4 of 5 Prior Knowledge: Students completed foundational past-tense practice in Weeks 3-4 and Present Tenses Advanced Review in the previous session; this session revisits Past Simple, Past Continuous, and Past Perfect at Complete-Grammar difficulty.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Review and contrast Past Simple, Past Continuous, and Past Perfect, focusing on sequencing two past events.	Warm-up: board a timeline diagram with two past events; present "When I arrived, she had already left." (Past Perfect for the earlier event) vs. "When I arrived, she was leaving." (Past Continuous, action in progress) vs. "When I arrived, she left." (Past Simple, sequential events); elicit which tense signals which event happened first; highlight signal words (while/as = continuous; by the time/already/before = perfect; then/after = simple sequence).	8 min	Elicitation, timeline visualization, rule presentation	Whiteboard	Oral questioning	Students orally sequence 2 past events using the correct tense pair
Practice sequencing past events correctly using the three past tenses in mixed-context sentences.	Guided practice — Ss complete a handout of 10 mixed sentences requiring the correct past-tense form based on time-sequence clues, several items requiring Past Perfect vs. Past Simple discrimination (e.g. "By the time the bus arrived, we ___ (wait) for 20 minutes"); pair-check; teacher reviews the 3-4 trickiest items on the board, using timeline sketches to justify the correct tense.	15 min	Pair work, guided practice, timeline-based error correction	Whiteboard, mixed past-tense handout	Pair-check, teacher monitoring	Students correctly complete at least 7 of 10 items
Apply advanced past-tense sequencing skills to STEP-style multiple-choice questions with realistic distractors.	Individual timed practice on the STEP topic worksheet (Past Tenses — Advanced Review, 10 MCQs featuring close distractor pairs across the three past tenses); 10-minute timer; Ss self-check against the on-page answer key; teacher reviews commonly missed items, reinforcing the "which event happened first" strategy for choosing between Past Simple and Past Perfect.	17 min	Independent timed practice, self-correction, distractor analysis	STEP topic worksheet — Past Tenses Advanced Review (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Self-checked worksheet score	Students score 7/10 or higher
Consolidate past-tense mastery and preview the Tense Mastery mixed-practice session.	Rapid drill: teacher gives two past events, Ss decide which tense pair sequences them correctly; exit ticket: write one sentence correctly using Past Perfect; brief preview that the next session pulls together all tenses from Weeks 3, 4, and 6 for exam-style mixed practice.	5 min	Rapid recall, exit ticket	Index cards, whiteboard	Exit ticket review	Students produce one grammatically correct Past Perfect sentence unaided

Class: STEP Program Week 6 Session: 5 of 5 — Tense Mastery (Mixed Practice) Title: STEP Complete Grammar — Tense Mastery Mixed Practice

Day/Date: Week 6, Day 5 of 5 Prior Knowledge: Students have completed foundational tense work in Weeks 3-4 and advanced Present- and Past-tense review earlier in Week 6; this session integrates all tenses studied so far into mixed, context-based practice matching STEP's exam format.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Activate cumulative tense knowledge from Weeks 3, 4, and 6; introduce the STEP strategy of identifying tense from context clues rather than isolated rules.	Warm-up: board a short paragraph (4-5 sentences) using multiple tenses naturally, with one blank per sentence; elicit which context clues (time expressions, sequence of events, sentence connectors) signal each required tense; briefly name the full tense range in scope — Present Simple/Continuous/Perfect/Perfect Continuous, Past Simple/Continuous/Perfect, and future forms from Weeks 3-4 — and note that a few additional advanced tense and pronoun subtopics from the question bank not covered as standalone sessions are folded into today's review.	8 min	Elicitation, context-clue strategy modeling, cumulative review	Whiteboard	Oral questioning	Students orally justify the tense choice for 2 blanks in the warm-up paragraph using context clues
Practice identifying and applying the correct tense across a variety of contexts pulling from all tenses studied.	Guided practice — Ss work in pairs on a mixed-tense cloze passage (12 blanks spanning present, past, and future forms) simulating a STEP reading-based grammar item; pairs justify their choice for each blank using context clues; teacher reviews the passage as a class, focusing on the 4-5 items with the highest error rate and briefly re-teaching the relevant tense rule.	15 min	Pair work, cloze-passage practice, cumulative error correction	Whiteboard, mixed-tense cloze passage handout	Pair-check, teacher monitoring	Students correctly complete at least 9 of 12 blanks
Apply full-range tense mastery to STEP-style multiple-choice questions under timed exam conditions.	Individual timed practice on the STEP topic worksheet (Tense Mastery — Mixed Practice, 10 MCQs randomly sampling across all tenses covered in Weeks 3, 4, and 6, formatted to mirror STEP's actual test layout); 10-minute timer; Ss self-check against the on-page answer key; teacher reviews commonly missed items, reinforcing context-clue identification over rote rule recall.	17 min	Independent timed practice, self-correction, distractor analysis, exam-condition simulation	STEP topic worksheet — Tense Mastery Mixed Practice (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class)	Self-checked worksheet score	Students score 7/10 or higher
Consolidate the Complete Grammar tense stage and preview Week 7.	Rapid recall relay: teacher reads a sentence with the verb in brackets, Ss race to call out the correct tense form; exit ticket: Ss write two sentences using two different tenses correctly; teacher gives a brief summary of progress across Weeks 3-6 and previews the Week 7 focus area.	5 min	Rapid recall relay, exit ticket, stage-closure summary	Index cards, whiteboard	Exit ticket review	Students produce two grammatically correct sentences in different tenses unaided
