Lesson Plan

Class: First Secondary Unit 5 Session: 1 of 3 — Vocabulary Title: Did You Hurt Yourself? — Listen and Discuss (SB pp. 68–69)
Day/Date: Week 11, Sun 21/5/1448 (Nov 1, 2026) Prior Knowledge: Students can use the simple past tense to talk about past events and know basic body-part vocabulary.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Activate prior knowledge and introduce the unit theme of accidents and injuries through the target expression “hurt yourself.”	Warm-up: teacher tells a short personal accident story (e.g. “I hurt myself last week. I cut my finger when I was cooking.”) and encourages Ss to use myself in their own stories; direct Ss to the “Common Accidents” pictures on SB p.68 and elicit what is happening in each; ask the SB guiding questions: In which pictures did the people hurt themselves? How can they prevent that from happening? In which pictures were the people not hurt? Why weren’t they hurt?	8 min	Personal-anecdote warm-up, whole-class brainstorming, picture description	SB p.68, Board	Oral questioning/responses	Students link their own past experience to the unit theme before listening
Notice reflexive pronouns (hurt himself/herself) in context and identify cause/effect signaled by so and because in the audio texts.	Play the audio for the pictures on p.68 and have Ss point to the person speaking; play again and have Ss underline the reflexive pronouns they hear; play a third time as Ss follow along in their books; discuss as a class how each accident could have been prevented (e.g. “If you use a helmet, you won’t hurt your head.”); move to “The Most Common Causes of Automobile Crashes” (SB p.69): Ss scan the boldface headings and name the six causes, then listen to the audio and circle unfamiliar words such as distracted, fatigue, and aggressive, guessing meaning from context.	15 min	Listen-and-point, guided listening, whole-class discussion, context-clue guessing	SB pp.68–69, class audio, Board	Oral Q&A; teacher monitoring of underlining task	Students explain, in their own words, one way to prevent one of the accidents pictured
Use unit vocabulary for injuries and complete Quick Check A (vocabulary) and B (true/false comprehension), SB p.69.	Quick Check A: Ss work alone or in pairs to list verbs that refer to injuries from the texts (sample answers: hurt, got a shock, injured, cut yourself). Quick Check B: Ss complete the true/false statements individually, then one student reads each statement aloud while the class confirms true or false (answers: 1 true, 2 false, 3 false, 4 true, 5 true). Teacher elicits and boards further new words from the Automobile Crashes text (documents, misjudge, encounter, severe, rude gestures, verbal abuse).	17 min	Individual work, pair/whole-class checking	SB p.69, Board	Quick Check A and B checked as a class	Students use two new injury verbs in original sentences about staying safe
Consolidate the session’s vocabulary and cause/effect language.	Quick class recap of the new injury vocabulary and of ways accidents can be prevented, using board prompts from the session; assign Workbook p.265 for vocabulary practice.	5 min	Whole-class wrap-up	SB p.69, Workbook p.265	Teacher monitoring of recap responses	Homework: Workbook p.265 vocabulary practice

Lesson Plan

Class: First Secondary Unit 5 Session: 2 of 3 — Grammar Title: Did You Hurt Yourself? — Grammar (SB pp. 70–71)

Day/Date: Week 11, Mon 22/5/1448 (Nov 2, 2026) Prior Knowledge: Students recognize subject/object pronouns, can form simple past-tense sentences, and know basic coordinating conjunctions.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Activate prior knowledge of pronouns and introduce reflexive pronouns.	Write my + self and your + self on the board and explain that reflexive pronouns are used when the subject and the object are the same person; contrast She hurt me. with She hurt herself.; check understanding by having Ss fill blanks with a subject pronoun in sentences such as ___ cut himself., ___ told herself to stay calm., ___ often stress themselves out over exams.	8 min	Board demonstration, guided fill-in-the-blank	Board	Oral responses to fill-in task	Students connect the grammar point to real experiences of getting hurt
Use reflexive pronouns correctly (SB p.70, Exercise A) and understand the difference between because and so.	Go over the Reflexive Pronouns chart on SB p.70 (myself, yourself, himself/herself/itself, ourselves, yourselves, themselves), noting the extra meaning of “alone/without help” (I fixed the hair dryer myself.); Ss complete Exercise A individually, filling each blank with the correct reflexive pronoun, then check answers as a class (herself, yourself, myself, himself, themselves, ourselves). Go over the Because versus So chart, explaining that because introduces a reason and so introduces a result; write sentence frames on the board (He missed the bus, so ___. / Because she didn’t study hard, ___.) and call on volunteers to complete them.	15 min	Guided grammar presentation, individual practice, class drill	SB p.70, Board	Exercise A checked orally; teacher monitoring of class drill	Students produce one original sentence with a reflexive pronoun about an accident
Practice because/so (SB p.70–71, Exercises B and C) and so/neither for agreement (SB p.71, Exercises C chart and D).	Exercise B: Ss individually join sentence pairs using so and because (e.g. The floor was wet, so Ahmed slipped and fell. / Ahmed slipped and fell because the floor was wet.), then compare in pairs and read answers aloud. Go over the So and Neither chart, modeling the example conversations (So am I. / Neither am I., etc.). Exercise C: Ss complete the sentences with so or because individually, checked as a class (answers: so, because, because, so, because, so). Exercise D: Ss write agreement responses (So do I. / Neither have I., etc.) alone, then take turns reading a statement and responding in pairs (sample answers: 1. Neither have I. 2. So do I. 3. So did I. 4. Neither did I. 5. Neither do I. 6. So am I. 7. So do I. 8. So did I. 9. Neither am I.).	17 min	Individual written practice, pair comparison, whole-class correction	SB pp.70–71, Board	Exercises B, C, and D checked as a class	Students respond with So… or Neither… to two real statements a partner makes about themselves
Consolidate the grammar points of the session.	Quick review contrasting because/so and so/neither using fresh example sentences on the board; assign Workbook pp.266–268 for further grammar practice.	5 min	Whole-class review	Board, Workbook pp.266–268	Teacher monitoring of review responses	Homework: Workbook pp.266–268

Class: First Secondary Unit 5 Session: 3 of 3 — Reading Title: Did You Hurt Yourself? — Reading (SB pp. 74–75)
Day/Date: Week 11, Tue 23/5/1448 (Nov 3, 2026) Prior Knowledge: Students can scan a text for specific information and follow a past-tense narrative.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Activate prior knowledge and predict the reading's content using the strategy of reading subheads.	Introduce the Reading Strategy "Reading subheads": explain that articles are often broken into sections with subheads that signal the topic of each part; Ss read the title "Unusual Accidents and Deaths" and the subheads "Unhappy endings" / "happy endings" on SB pp.74–75 and predict how the article is organized; Ss complete the Before Reading task, writing one sentence predicting the happy or unhappy ending for each listed event.	8 min	Reading-strategy instruction, prediction, individual task	SB p.74	Oral sharing of predictions	Students connect the subhead strategy to other articles or textbooks they read
Read/listen for gist and infer new vocabulary from context (meteorite, on the spot, stall, weave through, airborne, conscious).	Play the audio while Ss listen with books closed; Ss then open their books and scan for new words/expressions, which the teacher elicits and boards without defining (meteorite, on the spot, stall, weave through traffic, airborne, conscious), using each in a sentence so Ss can guess its meaning; play the audio again as Ss follow along and underline the sentences that express the happy or unhappy ending of each story; in pairs, Ss retell each other what happened in each situation.	15 min	Listen-and-read, context-clue guessing, pair retelling	SB pp.74–75, class audio	Teacher monitoring of pair retelling	Students summarize one accident from the text in a single sentence
Complete After Reading Exercise A (vocabulary matching) and B (sentence completion), and discuss the reading.	Exercise A: Ss individually match each word to its meaning (bald–d, to challenge–e, to weave through–f, to hurl–b, to burst–a, to recover–c), checked as a class. Exercise B: Ss complete the sentences about the reading individually and read their answers aloud (sample answers: 1. the tortoise's shell broke 2. from a farm 3. many children were invited and a lifeguard was going to be present 4. it didn't open 5. couldn't believe he survived/watching himself). Discussion: in groups, Ss discuss the five Discussion questions (e.g. which incident is strangest, why people are interested in disaster stories) and each group reports one answer to the class.	17 min	Individual work, whole-class check, group discussion	SB p.75	Exercises A and B checked as a class; group-discussion monitoring	Students state their own opinion on why people are drawn to stories of unusual accidents
Consolidate the reading vocabulary of the session.	Quick class recap of the new vocabulary from the reading; assign Workbook pp.270–271 for additional writing practice at word and sentence level.	5 min	Whole-class wrap-up	Workbook pp.270–271	Teacher monitoring of recap	Homework: Workbook pp.270–271

Class: STEP Program Week 9 Session: 1 of 5 — Prepositions & Prepositions of Time Title: STEP Complete Grammar — Prepositions & Prepositions of Time
Day/Date: Week 9, Day 1 of 5 Prior Knowledge: Students have completed all core grammar categories (tenses, verb forms, sentence structure) from Weeks 3-8.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Review common prepositions of place/direction/general usage (in/on/at/of/for/with, prepositional phrases) and introduce prepositions of time (in/on/at) with their specific time-expression patterns.	Warm-up: write 3 sentences with blanked prepositions on the board ("She was born ___ 2008.", "The exam is ___ Monday.", "We start ___ 8 o'clock."); elicit in/on/at; present the rule chart (in = months/years/seasons; on = days/dates; at = clock times); highlight common STEP distractor pairs (in the morning vs. at night, on time vs. in time).	8 min	Whole-class elicitation, rule presentation, board chart	Whiteboard	Oral questioning	Students choose the correct preposition for a given time expression on the spot
Practice prepositions of time (durations: for/since, in/within) and general prepositions (of/for/with) through guided worksheet items.	Distribute STEP topic worksheet — Prepositions & Prepositions of Time (10 Qs + answers on same page); students complete items 1-5 individually, mixing general and time prepositions; teacher circulates and models item 3 aloud, demonstrating the elimination strategy for near-identical preposition choices.	15 min	Guided individual practice, think-aloud modeling	STEP topic worksheet — Prepositions & Prepositions of Time (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class), Whiteboard	Worksheet monitoring, spot-check	Students justify their preposition choice using the rule-chart vocabulary (e.g., "duration, so I used 'for'")
Apply preposition rules to complete remaining worksheet items independently and self-correct, focusing on common STEP distractors (in the morning vs. at night, on time vs. in time, at the weekend vs. on weekends).	Students complete items 6-10 independently under light time pressure simulating STEP pacing; teacher reveals the same-page answer key; students self-check and mark items; class review of any item missed by more than 3 students, with teacher re-explaining the specific distractor rule on the board.	17 min	Independent timed practice, self-correction, class error review	STEP topic worksheet — Prepositions & Prepositions of Time (same sheet, items 6-10), Whiteboard	Self-checked worksheet, error-pattern tally on board	Students identify why the wrong preposition is a common exam distractor, not just the right answer
Consolidate prepositions and prepositions of time through a rapid-fire oral drill closing the session.	Teacher gives 6 rapid oral prompts ("The meeting is ___ 5 p.m." / "She's interested ___ art."); students answer chorally then individually with no board support; teacher notes any recurring errors to recycle in the next session's warm-up.	5 min	Rapid-fire oral drill, formative check	Whiteboard (prompts written in advance)	Oral response accuracy tally	Students respond correctly under time pressure without referring to the rule chart

Class: STEP Program Week 9 Session: 2 of 5 — Quantifiers & Comparatives/Superlatives Title: STEP Complete Grammar — Quantifiers & Comparatives/Superlatives
Day/Date: Week 9, Day 2 of 5 Prior Knowledge: Students have reviewed prepositions and prepositions of time in Session 1 and have prior exposure to basic quantifiers and comparative/superlative forms from earlier grammar units.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Review advanced quantifier usage (much/many/few/little/several/a lot of) with countable/uncountable nouns, and review comparative/superlative formation rules (regular -er/-est, irregular forms, as...as, less/least).	Warm-up: board shows two columns (countable/uncountable) with quantifier cards to sort (much, many, few, little, several, a lot of); elicit the rule (many/few/several = countable; much/little = uncountable; a lot of = both); quick review chart for comparatives/superlatives with irregular forms (good-better-best, bad-worse-worst, far-farther/further-farthest/furthest) and less/least, as...as.	8 min	Whole-class sorting activity, rule chart review	Whiteboard	Oral questioning	Students correctly sort quantifiers into countable/uncountable columns unprompted
Apply quantifier rules and comparative/superlative forms in guided worksheet practice, focusing on irregular forms and less/least as common STEP distractors.	Distribute STEP topic worksheet — Quantifiers & Comparatives/Superlatives (10 Qs + answers on same page); students complete items 1-5 in pairs; teacher models item 2 (an irregular comparative distractor, e.g., "more far" vs. "farther") using the elimination strategy.	15 min	Paired guided practice, think-aloud modeling	STEP topic worksheet — Quantifiers & Comparatives/Superlatives (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class), Whiteboard	Pair-work monitoring, spot-check	Students explain why an irregular comparative form is correct rather than the regular -er pattern
Complete remaining worksheet items independently under STEP-style timing and self-correct, targeting quantifier/countability errors and as...as constructions.	Students complete items 6-10 independently within a set time limit; reveal the same-page answer key; students self-check; class review of the most-missed items with teacher re-explaining on the board (e.g., "as tall as" vs. "so tall as").	17 min	Independent timed practice, self-correction, class error review	STEP topic worksheet — Quantifiers & Comparatives/Superlatives (items 6-10), Whiteboard	Self-checked worksheet, error-pattern tally	Students correct a deliberately wrong comparative/quantifier sentence on the board without teacher help
Consolidate quantifiers and comparatives/superlatives through a rapid oral drill mixing both topics.	Teacher gives 6 rapid oral prompts mixing both topics ("She has ___ money than him." / "___ students passed the test."); students respond chorally then individually; teacher notes recurring errors to recycle later.	5 min	Rapid-fire oral drill, formative check	Whiteboard (prompts pre-written)	Oral response accuracy tally	Students respond correctly under time pressure without referring to the rule chart

Class: STEP Program Week 9 Session: 3 of 5 — Capitalization & Punctuation Title: STEP Complete Grammar — Capitalization & Punctuation

Day/Date: Week 9, Day 3 of 5 Prior Knowledge: Students have completed Sessions 1-2 covering prepositions, quantifiers, and comparatives/superlatives, and have basic familiarity with sentence-level punctuation from earlier writing tasks.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Review capitalization rules (proper nouns, sentence-initial capitals, titles, days/months) and punctuation rules (commas, periods, apostrophes, question marks) as tested in STEP error-identification items.	Warm-up: board shows a short paragraph with capitalization/punctuation errors deliberately inserted (missing capital on a proper noun, missing apostrophe in a contraction, a comma splice); students spot the errors as a class; teacher builds a quick rule chart (capitalize proper nouns/titles/days-months; commas separate items/clauses; apostrophes show possession/contraction; question marks end direct questions).	8 min	Whole-class error-spotting, rule chart building	Whiteboard	Oral questioning	Students identify and name the specific rule broken in each planted error
Apply capitalization and punctuation rules in guided worksheet practice, focusing on STEP error-identification style items (spotting the one wrong element among four underlined parts).	Distribute STEP topic worksheet — Capitalization & Punctuation (10 Qs + answers on same page); students complete items 1-5 individually; teacher models item 2 (an apostrophe-vs-no-apostrophe distractor) using the four-underlined-parts elimination technique.	15 min	Guided individual practice, think-aloud modeling	STEP topic worksheet — Capitalization & Punctuation (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class), Whiteboard	Worksheet monitoring, spot-check	Students name the punctuation/capitalization rule that makes the other three underlined parts correct
Complete remaining worksheet items independently under STEP-style timing and self-correct, targeting comma usage and capitalization of titles/proper nouns as common distractors.	Students complete items 6-10 independently within a time limit; reveal the same-page answer key; self-check; class review of the most-missed items with teacher re-explaining the specific rule on the board.	17 min	Independent timed practice, self-correction, class error review	STEP topic worksheet — Capitalization & Punctuation (items 6-10), Whiteboard	Self-checked worksheet, error-pattern tally	Students correct a deliberately mis-punctuated/mis-capitalized sentence on the board without teacher help
Consolidate capitalization and punctuation through a rapid dictation-style closing drill.	Teacher reads 3 short sentences aloud; students write them with correct capitalization and punctuation; quick class check against the board version.	5 min	Dictation drill, formative check	Whiteboard	Written dictation accuracy check	Students apply both rule sets simultaneously in a single piece of writing

Class: STEP Program Week 9 Session: 4 of 5 — Error Identification & The Correct Sentence Title: STEP Complete Grammar — Error Identification & The Correct Sentence
Day/Date: Week 9, Day 4 of 5 Prior Knowledge: Students have completed Sessions 1-3 covering prepositions, quantifiers, comparatives/superlatives, capitalization, and punctuation, and have practiced elimination-style reasoning on individual grammar points.

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Introduce/reinforce the two classic STEP exam question formats — Error Identification (4 underlined words/phrases, spot the one grammatically wrong part) and The Correct Sentence (choose the grammatically correct version among near-identical options).	Warm-up: board shows one sample Error Identification item and one sample Correct Sentence item; teacher models the elimination strategy for each format aloud (for Error ID: check each underlined part against a grammar rule in turn; for Correct Sentence: compare options side by side, isolating the one word/structure that differs).	8 min	Modeling, think-aloud demonstration	Whiteboard	Oral questioning	Students state the elimination steps for each format in their own words
Apply the elimination strategy to guided Error Identification and Correct Sentence items drawing on all grammar topics covered since Week 3.	Distribute STEP topic worksheet — Error Identification & The Correct Sentence (10 Qs + answers on same page); students complete items 1-5 in pairs, applying the elimination strategy; teacher circulates and models item 3 aloud.	15 min	Paired guided practice, think-aloud modeling	STEP topic worksheet — Error Identification & The Correct Sentence (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class), Whiteboard	Pair-work monitoring, spot-check	Students explain which grammar rule (from tenses, prepositions, comparatives, etc.) makes the underlined part wrong
Complete remaining worksheet items independently under STEP-style timed conditions and self-correct, consolidating error-spotting speed and accuracy across mixed grammar points.	Students complete items 6-10 independently within a strict time limit simulating exam pacing; reveal the same-page answer key; self-check; class review of the most-missed items with teacher re-explaining the underlying rule.	17 min	Independent timed practice, self-correction, class error review	STEP topic worksheet — Error Identification & The Correct Sentence (items 6-10), Whiteboard	Self-checked worksheet, error-pattern tally	Students independently identify the wrong part in a new item without teacher support
Consolidate both question formats through a rapid closing challenge comparing Error Identification and The Correct Sentence.	Teacher displays 2 quick items (one Error ID, one Correct Sentence) with a strict 30-second-per-item limit; students answer individually on mini whiteboards/paper; instant class check.	5 min	Timed challenge drill, formative check	Whiteboard	Instant accuracy check	Students correctly apply the appropriate elimination strategy under real exam time pressure

Class: STEP Program Week 9 Session: 5 of 5 — Mixed Grammar & Word Choice Title: STEP Complete Grammar — Mixed Grammar & Word Choice (Exam Skills Mastery)
Day/Date: Week 9, Day 5 of 5 Prior Knowledge: Students have completed all Complete Grammar sessions (Weeks 3-9), including prepositions, quantifiers, comparatives/superlatives, capitalization, punctuation, error identification, and the correct sentence.

Sat	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed

Objectives	Procedures Techniques and activities	Time	Teaching and learning Strategies	Resources	Evaluation (tools and Techniques)	Transfer of Learning
Introduce Mixed Grammar items (cumulative questions combining several grammar points in one item) and Word Choice items (selecting the correct word among similar options), framing this session as a comprehensive review closing the entire Complete Grammar stage.	Warm-up: board shows one Mixed Grammar sample item (e.g., combining a tense and a preposition in one sentence) and one Word Choice sample item (e.g., affect/effect, its/it's); teacher models the strategy of isolating each grammar point separately before choosing the final answer.	8 min	Modeling, think-aloud demonstration	Whiteboard	Oral questioning	Students break a mixed-grammar sentence into its separate grammar components aloud
Apply cumulative review strategies to guided Mixed Grammar and Word Choice items drawing on every Complete Grammar topic from Weeks 3-9.	Distribute STEP topic worksheet — Mixed Grammar & Word Choice (10 Qs + answers on same page); students complete items 1-5 in pairs; teacher circulates and models item 3, explicitly naming which grammar categories are combined.	15 min	Paired guided practice, think-aloud modeling	STEP topic worksheet — Mixed Grammar & Word Choice (10 Qs + answers on same page, self-checked in class), Whiteboard	Pair-work monitoring, spot-check	Students name every grammar category tested within a single mixed item
Complete remaining worksheet items independently under full STEP-style timed exam conditions and self-correct, consolidating the entire Complete Grammar stage as one of the three most heavily-tested STEP categories.	Students complete items 6-10 independently within a strict time limit simulating exam pacing; reveal the same-page answer key; self-check; whole-class review of the most-missed items, with teacher linking each error back to its originating grammar topic from earlier weeks.	17 min	Independent timed practice, self-correction, cumulative class error review	STEP topic worksheet — Mixed Grammar & Word Choice (items 6-10), Whiteboard	Self-checked worksheet, error-pattern tally	Students correctly link a missed item to the specific grammar topic it tests, from memory
Close the Complete Grammar stage with a rapid comprehensive oral review spanning all Week 9 topics.	Teacher fires 6 rapid oral prompts, one drawn from each Week 9 topic (preposition, quantifier, comparative, capitalization/punctuation, error identification, word choice); students answer individually; teacher gives a brief closing statement marking the transition to Reading Strategies in Week 10.	5 min	Rapid-fire cumulative oral drill, formative check	Whiteboard	Oral response accuracy tally	Students demonstrate readiness across all Complete Grammar topics before moving to Reading Strategies
