Follow these steps to write a cover letter

Writing Corner

When you write a cover letter it is important to think about why you are writing it (purpose); who you are addressing (audience); and the information you will put in each paragraph:

- include the name, title, and address of the recipient on the left
- start with a short introduction stating your reasons for writing
- include a section or paragraph about why you are the right person for the job
- finish with a closing statement thanking the recipient

Find the features mentioned above in the letter on page 29 before you write your own cover letter.

Unit 2
Careers

Writing

What is a cover letter?

Make a good first impression!

A cover letter is a one-page document that you include in a job application (along with your resume).

Your cover letter should introduce you to an employer, and give them additional information about your qualifications and character.

- Introduces you
- Shares additional information
- Highlights your qualifications
- Shows your character

Good People Build Great Futures

Unit 2 Careers

Writing

The goal of a cover letter is to convince employers that you're interested in and qualified for a job.

Your cover letter is also a great place to provide additional details about your work history, skills, or life situation to a prospective employer.

When written well, your cover letter provides important information that your resume isn't able to communicate.
